ACTS 1:8

"I AM THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD"
(JOHN 8:12)

CFCPO STATEMENT OF FAITH

WE BELIEVE

THE BIBLE: The Scripture of the Old and New Testaments were verbally inspired of God and inerrant in the original writings and that they are the Supreme and final authority for our faith and life (2 Tim 3:16, 17; 2 Peter 1:20, 21).

GRACE: Eternal life is a free gift and cannot be earned. We are saved by grace and not by our own works (Eph. 2:8, 9; Rom. 6:23).

HUMAN: We are sinners and that by His death upon the cross, the Lord Jesus Christ made a perfect atonement for sin, redeeming us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse in our place (Rom. 3:23; John 3:18; Rom. 10:9, 10).

GOD: There is one God. Holy, eternally existing and manifesting Himself to us in three persons. Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is merciful and loves us, but is just and must punish sin (John 14:6, 10; Exodus 34:7; Matt. 28:9; John 3:16).

CHRIST: Jesus Christ is God incarnate. He was supernaturally conceived, born of a virgin, was put to death by crucifixion under Pontius Pilot, was raised from the dead on the third day, and now sits at the Father's right hand whence He is coming again personally, bodily and visibly (Luke 12:35; 1 Cor. 15:3, 4; Eph. 1:13; Eph. 4:4, 5).

HOLY SPIRIT: The Holy Spirit is God. He indwells all believers having baptized them in the body of Christ at the time of regeneration (Rom. 10:9, 10; 1 Cor. 12:13, 14; Eph. 4:4, 5).

FAITH: All those who by faith receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour, and who confess Him as such before their fellowmen become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ (Rom. 10:9; Eph. 2:8, 9; Rom. 8:16, 17).

JUDGEMENT: Those who reject the love of God and the saving work of Christ will be judged and punished for sin. They will be eternally separated from God (John 16:7-11; Psalm 89:32; Exodus 34:7; Jude 14:15; John 3:18).

This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it, for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have success. (Josh. 1:8)

President's Message

As I start another letter to the "Peacemaker", I cannot help becoming nostalgic. My question to our readers is this, can we ever forget our past, and the people who have helped shape our destinies?

I have just recently gone over all the back issues of the Peacemaker. It was like picking up a guest book and renewing old acquaintances. As I reread letters and articles, I was able to retrace the growth and direction this organization has taken over the years. Many of the peoples names seemed to jump out of the articles and many fond memories would come flooding back. It was interesting reading letters of inquiry from people and following them through to where they became active members and in some cases were the spark needed to form a chapter. And letters from people who have since been called home by their Lord and saviour, and the announcements of many precious little ones being born into our extended family.

As Christians should we be any different? I find that now more than ever I have to take time to meditate on the events that have brought me to where I am now.

This month marks one year that my father has gone to be with the Lord. His advice and other peoples advice and influences, are something I cherish. Most of all, we as Christians should never forget the cross of calvary, of all things past, that alone must remain the center of every believers identity. We must always remember that the price of who or what we are today is because of the sacrifice of the innocent blood of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

As this ministry continues, we are able to minister to various groups within the law enforcement communities. We are excited about being invited to take part, this July, in a Natural Resources Conference in Ottawa. This conference will have officers and their families from across Canada and the States attending. Please pray that we can be effective witnesses and that the gospel of Christ will go forth effectively.

Message Du Président

Ainsi que j'écris un autre message du président pour le Peacemaker je deviens nostalgique. Ma question à nos lecteurs est la suivante: "Est-ce qu'on peu oublier notre passé et les gens qui nous ont aidé à former notre destin?"

Je viens de revoir les vieilles publications du "Peacemaker", et c'était comme si je lisais un livre d'invités, et j'ai eu le sentiment que je renouvrais des connaissances d'autre fois. En lisant les lettres et les articles j'ai été capable de retracer les développements et les directions qu'a pris notre organisation. J'ai trouvé cela intéressant de lire les lettres des gens, qui demandais de l'information, ensuite de voir qu'ils s'ont devenu membres; ainsi que les annonces de ceux qui ont été appelé pour aller vivre avec notre Seigneur, et les annonces de nouveau ne!

Comme chrétiens est-ce que nous devrions être différents? Je trouve que maintenant plus que jamais je dois prendre le temps de réfléchir aux événements qui m'ont amené où je suis maintenant.

Il y a maintenant un an que mon père est allé vivre avec le Seigneur, et les conseils et l'influence donc il m'a donné est quelque chose que je chéris! Surplus, comme chrétiens, il ne faut jamais oublier la croix du calvaire, qui doit demeurer le centre d'identité de chaque croyant. Nous devons nous rappeler que le coût pour lequel nous sommes aujourd'hui est une cause du sacrifice que notre Seigneur Jésus-Christ a fait pour nous.

Avec notre ministère, nous avons la chance d'atteindre de groupe divers dans la communauté des agents de paix. Nous sommes excités d'être invité à la conférence des "Agents de la protection de la nature", qui aura lieu à Ottawa, durant le mois de juillet. Cette conférence va attirer les agents, et leur familles, qui demeurent au Canada et aux États-Unis. Je demande vos prières afin que nous pourrions être de témoins efficaces et que l'évangile de Jésus-Christ peut s'avancer.

N'oubliez pas notre conférence qui aura lieu

EDITORIAL

The Webster's New Twentieth Century Dictionary's theological definition of "ELECTION" is; a "divine choice by God, by which persons are distinguished as objects of mercy, become subjects of grace, are sanctified, and prepared for eternal life in heaven." It is also the act of choosing a person to fill an office or position by a vote.

It is a fundamental right of everyone to choose. It expresses the idea of deliberately selecting someone or something after carefully considering the alternatives. Many of those ideas are in the Old Testament. For example, 1 Sam. 18:40, a sling shot; a wife in Gen. 6:2; good rather than evil, Isa. 7:15; life rather than death, Deut. 30:19; the service of God rather than idols, Jos. 24:22.

Why should we vote?

The New Bible Dictionary suggests that the development of the idea of election is found in the Epistles of Paul and especially refers to Rom. 8:28; Eph. 1:3-14; 1 Thes. 1:2-10; 2 Thes. 2:13-14; 2 Tim. 1:9-10. Having examined the references made, Paul does present divine election as a gracious, sovereign, eternal choice of individual sinners to be saved and glorified in and through Christ.

Consider again. Election "is a gracious choice; it is a sovereign choice; it is an eternal choice."

We are required by law to have annual elections of our national and local chapter executives. But, the question that troubles those holding office is, who will participate by standing for office and who will exercise their choice by voting in a new executive? How we get involved is our choice, but it is necessary that we make the choice.

Please get involved by voting when you receive the notice for election or reelection.

For local chapters, elections are usually held in June and our national executive in late

TIPS FROM A CRIME PREVENTION OFFICER

by Heather Percy

My husband used to work as a Crime Prevention Officer. The ideas for this article are his. I have simply put the words around the ideas. All references are from the New American Standard Bible.

How we protect our families is very important, both spiritually and physically. Companies, church groups and community groups frequently invite Crime Prevention officers to teach their people how to protect their homes, property, and their own bodies. But how much time and energy do we devote to the spiritual protection of our homes and to ourselves. Here are some suggestions.

Be careful what is outside your door.

Genesis 4:7 "If you do well, will not your countenance be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must master it."

Every year, early in January, I am struck by this verse. God was speaking with Cain here, before Cain killed his brother Abel. Cain obviously did not heed God's warning. How about you? Do you pay attention to what lurks outside your life?

Paint your door-posts the right color.

Exodus 12:23 "For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the Lord will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to smite you."

Even today the Jewish people still celebrate Passover, in commemoration of that time in Egypt when they painted the doorposts with the blood of a perfect lamb so they would be protected from death. Is your life, and your home, protected by Jesus' blood?

Are you using the right door?

In John 10:9-10 Jesus calls himself "the door".

"I (Jesus) am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly." Jesus is the only door through which we can have access to eternal life. Be sure you are using this door.

Who do you let into your house?

Revelation 3:20 "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me."

Jesus is speaking here. He is the best guest we could possibly let into our hearts and our homes.

Protect your windows.

It has been said that the eyes are the windows of the soul. Windows can be used for both looking out of, and looking into, and so can our eyes. Our eyes may show others much about us, but we must be very careful what we let in through our eyes. This reminds me of Romans 12:2 which tells us to "...be transformed by the renewing of your mind..." A lot of what affects my mind gets there through my eyes and my ears. Be careful about what you watch on TV and videos; what you read; what magazines you look at.

Protect your belongings.

Put your "stuff" where it will be safe. Matthew 6:19 says: "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

How To Pray?

In continuation with our theme on prayer we will examine the ten sections outlined in brother Bob Grimby's study.

1. "Our Father..." Jesus established a relationship of love between the believer and his God. Just as an earthly father is easy to entreat, so the heavenly Father listens and loves.

2. "In Heaven, hallowed be Your name..." While God is our Father, He still is God and deserves our respect. By recognizing His position, we recognize His ability to assist us far beyond the help of any earthly father. Therefore, Christ taught us early in each prayer to pause and thank God for that relationship recognizing His great glory.

3. "...Your kingdom come..." This world has been wrecked by the havoc of Satan. Christ teaches us to pray that His Kingdom will come in the hearts of men and on the face of this earth. Christians everywhere should pray daily for Christ's Kingdom to come.

4. "...Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven..." For some eternal reason God has tied His hands on earth. He has involved us in the redemptive process. Therefore, each prayer should be one imploring God to bring forces to bear on this earth, so men will be responsive to His will.

5. "...Give us this day, our daily bread..." God desires we ask Him each day for our daily needs. Often we reluctantly ask God for material blessings. Yet, in the prayer Christ taught us to pray, it is very clear the Father desires this type of petition. Many Old Testament saints understood this premise. The Psalmist prayed..."O Lord, I pray send now prosperity" (Ps 118:25).

6. "...And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors..." We have already seen how our forgiveness is predicted on our ability to forgive. This part of the prayer Christ taught simply calls attention to our moral duty toward the family of man.

7. "...And lead us not into temptation..." While the spirit is willing, the flesh is weak. Christ teaches us to pray that we escape temptation; while we might stand the test of trial, Jesus taught here that we should desiredeliverance from the test if possible.

8. "...But deliver us from evil..." Almost in the same breath this prayer follows the preceding thought. Here we are praying for complete deliverance from that evil one, who has choked our world to its knees and bred hatred and war among mankind. This is also another plea for that Kingdom to come, to set man and creation free. Our daily cry is that the agony of this earth be shortened and our Lord returns.

9. "...For yours is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever..." Jesus now comes to the full circle of prayer. Note, this prayer began with praise, and now concludes with it. While the evil one does have power, still we recognize "...He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world" (1John 4:4). Here we express the confidence that ultimately evil will be conquered and Christ will reign forever and ever.

10. "...Amen" This final note in the Lord's prayer is one of confidence that the Lord has heard us. We do not speak to empty air. Rather, we have the Divine assurance that what we ask in Christ's name will be done. Thus, a resounding "Amen" fills the end of our prayer.

Praise Touches God's Glory

For a long time Israel had wanted to build a temple for their God. David yearned to build it, but God said it would be David's son, Solomon, who would have the unique privilege. Years of careful work finally brought about the most beautiful building man had ever erected. The day of dedication came and Israel rejoiced in the magnificence of the structure.

Great choirs and orchestras had been prepared for this exciting occasion. The Levites had practiced long. The priest tensed with excitement as the ceremonies began. Solomon was to lead in prayer on this day of days. The worship service started and the pomp and glory was all they had anticipated.

The Ark was brought in and the priest entered the holy place. When they came out the

Conference Update

From Western National Director
Harold Johnson

On April 04, Dan Doerksen, Mike Holland and I travelled to Calgary and met with fellowship members of the Calgary and Lethbridge Chapters. We enjoyed the hospitality of Calgary peace officer Bill Webb, as we and sixteen other members met in his home.

Lethbridge Chapter executives, Keith Duncan and Blaine Stodolka confirmed the cost of $90.00 per adult for the weekend. However, if you stay in your own accommodation (RV or Motel) the rate is $75.00 per adult, meals included.

Two french interpreters who work for the Lethbridge police department were booked for the convenience of our French Friends.

Music for the conference will be provided by our own Al Hart, (Edmonton police const.) and Reg Jensen (RCMP officer).

Children attending will be entertained by Roy Davidson (Ex RCMP) now lawyer, in Pinches Creek.

For those arriving by plane, please let us know which airport, we will provide transportation. We will also provide bedding for those who request it. PLEASE LET US KNOW IN ADVANCE.

So let's get your registration in early. Lethbridge needs that registration in advance for several reasons.

- (1). They need to know who is coming.
- (2). They need the money for expenses, airfare for special speaker, booking of camp and necessary supplies, etc.

P.S.

Please pray for Det. A.J. Wilson in hospital with cancer. We are thankful for his testimony and good spirit.

Also, pray that we will get permission to set up a camp meeting tent on the grounds.

Although this editorial encourages your involvement in the election process, the Presidents Message is indicative of the support we need from all.

singers started their beautiful hymn of praise. It should be noted that God's glory was touched when the people began praising and thanking the Lord. Thus, praise touches God's glory. Imagine the problem the priests had that glorious day. The house was filled with God's glory the priests could not even minister. I long for a great revival to sweep our land in such a fashion. And, I deeply believe it can come as God's people learn to praise in prayer. The Psalmist added, "But you are holy, O who inhabit the praise of Israel" (Ps. 22:3).

It is appropriate to mention in response to the above that on Monday, June 22, 7:00pm, in the Toronto Skydome, is "SAVE-THE-NATION-PRAYER-RALLY." Join many of us and pray for "revival and for Canadian families by name...that God will have mercy on them." Sponsored by Canadian Crusade For Christ, Inc. Tel: (416) 784-4499 for your pass.

YOUR LETTERS

"The Foundation of Commitment"

I've not (yet) heard God in an audible voice, but His message rings clear as He makes Himself manifest through His word, still-small-voice as His Spirit speaks to mine and through circumstances as well as other believers.

When I listen, He answers. When I fail to pay attention, I miss that which He has for me. Some of the best such opportunities occur on first watch, alone during the night hours. Cops really do need to recognize His presence as they are by no means "alone" at any time lest they choose to be; it is after all His promise never to leave or forsake His children!

Over the course of three night shifts, the Lord found a way to prompt me to re-focus on the relevance, indeed the absolute necessity of my need to have Him continue the primary role in my calling as a police officer. He must increase - I must decrease.

Some months prior, I'd been working through a daily devotional book published by Chuck Swindoll. Central in one lesson was an "adaptation" focussing upon the love chapter, 1 Corinthians 13. It was written by an anonymous missionary, place and time unknown. But I was struck by how he/she had without attention to the clear meaning and essence of the passage, "internalized" the truth of the words and had expanded them in a way which brought the meaning into direct relationship with his/her special ministry.

So when I read it, I too felt challenged to make those verses mine in exactly the same way. God heard and answered; I wrote and prayed at His direction. The result is an "adaptation" emphasizing for me, the foundation of commitment which God and the ministry of police work demands of me (and I trust each of you!). The first focus is a personal one for me; I'm the one who needs to "live" what the words speak. But I am prompted to share it with you because I'm reasonably confident there are others who, like me, just want to "DO IT RIGHT" and be found faithful.

May our Lord and Saviour quicken your hearts and challenge you afresh concerning His desires and expectations of you.

Daniel B. Small
Edmonton

Editors note:

Daniel is a sergeant with the Edmonton Police Service and wants to remind us that Jesus is alive, well and working miracles through His body in Edmonton. See Poets Corner for his poem.

"Not Ashamed"

The Lord has been faithful and true even in troubles and crisis on the job, he has never failed me. So as a peace officer I have not been ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto all who (receive) believe. Rom. 1:16.

G.F. Burrell

Our brother is a retired peace officer. He served twenty five years in the Correctional Service of Canada, in Kingston, Ont. and B.C. with the last seven years at the Regional Psychiatric Centre.

"He Never Fails Us"

I was transferred from Sanikiluaq in July to Iqaluit. Iqaluit, formerly known as Frobisher Bay, is located on the southern tip of Baffin Island and is the S/Division for the Eastern Arctic. The population of about 3500 consists of a mixture of Inuits and whites. The detachment has about fourteen members and the work is abundant, unfortunately. The majority of our files revolve around drugs, assaults or sexual assaults. It is understandable however, as Inuit culture, up until about 10 years ago felt that inter family relations were perfectly acceptable.

In Sanikiluaq, abuse has destroyed a whole generation of young men. They are all about

NEWS AND INFORMATION

FROM QUEBEC AREA CHAPTER

What a marvellous time we had at Camp de l'Arche on the 9th general meeting of the C.F.C.P.O. The brotherhood, between brothers and sisters in Jesus-Christ has been a real blessing from the beginning up to the end. For all of us, it was a privilege to welcome you and we'll keep these moments in our mind. We also "video-taped" everything.

We hope that many members, together with their spouse, will go to Waterton Alberta next August for our 10th General Meeting of the C.F.C.P.O. Blessings are waiting for all of us.

Regarding the Quebec Area Chapter, everything is fine! For this year, the executive stays the same as last year's. Some projects are of a real importance for us, such as having a chapter in Montreal. Please join us in prayer about it. Also, every Tuesday night, we have our prayer meeting at one of our members's house.

If one of you happen to ride in our area, please come and have a coffee.

Quebec Area Chapter*

NOUVELLES DU CHAPITRE DE LA RÉGION DE QUEBEC

Que de bons moments passés ensemble au Camp de l'Arche lors de la 9ième Conférence Nationale de la C.F.C.P.O. La fraternité, entre frères et soeurs dans le Seigneur Jésus-Christ, a été vraiment spéciale et ce, du début jusqu'à la fin du congrès. Pour nous tous, cela a été un privilège de vous accueillir et nous gardons de très bons souvenirs de vous tous; d'autant plus que nous avons tout enregistré sur vidéo-tape. Nous espérons (Dieu voulant) que plusieurs membres, accompagnés de leur épouse, se rendront à Waterton en Alberta en août 1992, pour la 10ième Conférence de la

C.F.C.P.O.

Du côté du chapitre de la région de Québec, cela très bien. L'exécutif, pour la présente année, demeure le même que celui de 1991. Quelques projets nous sont à coeur, dont particulièrement l'ouverture d'un chapitre à Montréal. Priez avec nous pour cela. A tous les mardis soir, nous tenons une soirée de prière chez l'un de nos membres.

En terminant, si quelques uns parmi vous passent dans notre région, n'hésitez pas à venir nous voir.

CLOVERDALE CHAPTER, SURREY, B.C

Greetings from all of us out in lotus land. We had our first meeting early in January and seem to be over the bump in regard to wondering and worrying about attendance. The faces and numbers change slightly each month, but people always arrive. Our attendance is hovering about 20 each morning and we need to arrange a group to accommodate the other shifts as we can only accommodate the work schedules for half the officers in uniform. Another group is a must.

As a money saving measure, feel free to mail the Delta P.D. copies of the Peacemaker to our chapter address. We can distribute them readily.

Our chapter has been moving along as a bit of a one or two man show for some time. We are hoping to get some new faces involved in the organizational end and to make a deeper commitment to the work. This is essential to our continuing growth. Getting a foothold in the largest department - Vancouver - continues to elude us. Please pray for our success in this regard.

A Worthwhile Visit

We made a trip down to Tacoma to meet with the chapter. We arrived at the restaurant

Remember the upcoming conference in Alberta, it would be nice to see many of the people whom we have lost contact with over the years.

As Christians in law enforcement, I know we miss and need your fellowship. The leadership of this C.F.C.P.O. feels strongly that we can stand together as brothers and sisters against persecution, where one person might not be able to withstand the continued attacks that we see coming against peace officers, especially Christian officers.

My prayer is that everyone ever touched by this ministry would reunite themselves with us, and together we would form a victorious army marching forward in the name of our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ.

Till we meet again please pray for us as we pray for you.

Ma prière est que tous ceux qui ont été touché par ce ministère puissent se réunir avec nous, et ensemble nous pourrions former une arme dans le nom de notre Seigneur.

mid-twenties and are the most violent offenders. The majority are either in the Federal Penitentiaries or else they are dead. The few that remain of that age group are in constant trouble.

For the month of September, I was given the chance to be a relief court member. It was a challenge I enjoyed, but one that made me commit all into the Lord's hands. In the Eastern Arctic, the Justice Department suffers from lack of personnel. As a result, all C.C. charges are set for Territorial court and then sent back to the Justice of the Peace Court for prosecution by the police court member. It took a lot of prayer and preparation to walk into court and go up against the defence lawyers, but as one can expect of our Lord, He never fails us.

I have learned over the last year that the Lord's forgiveness and grace far surpasses what we can imagine. He has taken my sin and my failure and turned it into such blessing. Last November, my daughter Ariel Berit was born. I am so thankful that our Heavenly Father is "faithful and just" (John 1:9). He continues not only to work out His will in my life, but I have seen Him working His will out in the life of others as a result.

My move to Iqaluit has been very "unstressful." The wife of a corporal I know recently committed her life to the Lord and I am able to do a little discipling.

Thanks for the Peacemakers. The recent issue reached me at the ranch.

May the Lord continue to bless you and encourage you in this work. Believe me it means more than you can know to those of us whose Christian contact is so limited.

"We are a light of the world "

Praise the Lord for the Peacemakers and the tremendous effort put forward by all the executive members that keep it on the rock and rolling with the rock.

I just wanted to let you know that as of April 1st., 1992, I will be retiring from the R.C.M.P. after 25 years service. I have accepted a full time position with The Gideons International in Canada as their first National Recruiting officer. I will be working from my residence in Unionville, Ontario.

Secondly I just want to encourage all the R.C.M.P. officers who are members of the FCPO. As peace officers we are a light to the world and as Christian Peace Officers we are all lights to our co-workers. Many times Christian Police Officers feel that they are a minority but remember that every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. It took each of us time for the Lord to get our attention to find out that we needed Him and to make him Lord of our Lives. The next time you get discouraged just remember "that if God is for You who can be against you".

Art keep up the great work I know what it is like being an Editor and the tremendous number of voluntary hours that you and Miriam put in.

Brother Steve Rowe
Unionville, Ont.

Thank you for those encouraging words, we appreciate them and know that your work is a challenging one that is needed. We will try to remember you always when we pray and may God bless you in your new endeavor.

"I am overjoyed"

Though I was not a Christian at the time, I once received your newsletter. I had also received a Police Officer's Survival Kit, which I have since carried in the jacket pocket of my uniform.

I am overjoyed to report that I am now a Christian. After 11 years in the RCMP, one failed marriage and consequently the loss of my two daughters, various other failed relationships, alcohol abuse, and an unhealthy liberated life-style, I have seen the light. There were many prayers from my family for which I will be forever grateful.

I am writing you as I would like to start receiving the Peacemaker again. I would like to receive membership information and would like to know if there is a local chapter (Fredericton area).

"Good reading"

Please place my name on your mailing list, as I would like to be a member of the FCPO.

I have been a police officer for 23 years and I am looking forward to some good reading.

Cst. Kenneth McIntyre
Dresden, Ont.

Finally

I write to congratulate you on yet another fine edition of the 'Peacemaker'. I note that you apologize for saying in the previous edition, that Jack Foster was Chief of Minden, when he was Chief of Sterling. But have you dear brother made another mistake, sterling is the money I have in my pocket, Stirling is the place where Jack was Chief, unless I am mistaken.

I plan to come to the conference in New Brunswick in 1993.

"Comfort For Everyone"

I am watching my three children playing happily. My wife just got home from town and I really thank God for these treasures bestowed on me.

I am reflecting on this largely because my brothers 9 year old daughter Lauren was rushed to hospital after collapsing. The cause: a brain aneurysm. I was guilty again of taking all these good things, the basics of family for granted, until I was reminded yet again of the many thanks we owe to our Lord.

I would ask for your prayers for Lauren, Nicole and my brothers family. Lauren is currently in a coma as I write (92 21 March). This brings painful memories back of the loss of my sister's son, Neil Daniel at the age of 3 years to leukemia. I wonder at times like this how anyone could get through these rocky periods in our lives without knowing, our Lord is there and communicating with Him in prayer.

At Christmas time, I gave my grade 7&8 students a book mark with "The Weaver's Hand" written on it. I include it here to share its message for those who haven't seen it. It has comfort for everyone.

The Weaver's Hand

My life is but a weaving between my Lord and me, I cannot choose the colors He worketh steadily.

Oft times He weaveth sorrow, and I in foolish pride, forget He sees the upper But I the under side.

Not till the loom is silent and the shuttles cease to fly, shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why.

The dark threads areas needful, in the Weaver's skillful hand, as threads of Gold and Silver in the pattern He has planned.

newsletter No 1

I must first apologize for the delay in producing this first newsletter. For some months I was promised a desktop publishing package for my computer to help in producing the newsletter. It finally arrived and I have recently been trying to master the program. I hope you will bear with me with this issue and the next few editions.

The purpose of this newsletter is to keep you informed in other countries of the world about the work of similar Christian groups working amongst the police. It is for encouragement and also may give you ideas and suggestions about new ways to reach our unsaved colleagues. To do this it needs two way communication. I hope that everyone receiving this newsletter will forward to me copies of their newsletters, prayer cards and if possible copies of any literature etc. you produce. I can then pick out items for inclusion in this newsletter.

If there are items in your newsletters that you do not want reproduced, please indicate to save any embarrassment.

In the interests of security I will not publish any names and addresses of individuals or organizations, but if you require any further information please direct these enquiries through the F.C.P.F. who will forward them on. If you are happy to have details of yourself or organization published please let me know.

If you wish to reproduce any items from the newsletter you are more than welcome.

I would like to spotlight one of the groups in each edition and would welcome material for this.

Richard Wiggins
England

Richard, as you will recall, graciously entertained our Peacemakers distributors during their vacation (October 91) in England. We received their first publication in December 91 with Richard's forward published for your viewing. Please write to him at P.O. Box 999, Rickmansworth, Hertfordshire, WD3 2RJ, U.K.

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you that I enjoy your publication and the quality of the articles that are contained in it. It is a ministry that is very much needed.

Secondly, I would like to respond to Heather Percy's article "Christian law enforcement, Is it possible?" For years I have struggled with this question, often not responding properly to situations thereby negatively affecting my witness. I have however learned a few things from this struggle and would like to share them with you.

Jesus tells us in John chapter 15 that He is the vine and that we are the branches. He further tells us that His Father will remove the branches that do not produce fruit and will prune those that do so that they will produce more fruit. The fact of the matter is that without Christ we can do nothing. I, like most of your readers, have experienced situations like those she describes. Sometimes we fail to show God's love and other times we are able to see the results of showing God's love in tough situations.

When we are living in the vine we will naturally produce the fruit of that vine. We as Christians involved in law enforcement have the advantage of not having to look for patience, love, kindness etc., they occur supernaturally within us. What we need to do is allow the Father to prune us so that we will produce more fruit. We need also to recognize the power of the Holy Spirit and begin to operate in it. We are servants of the ultimate lawmaker and as His servants we have special authority, let us learn to operate within that authority.

As to what can the rest of the family of God do to assist us. PRAY!!! Pray that we will learn to be the branch and not try to be the vine. Pray that we will recognize where our authority and power comes from. Pray that we will allow the Holy Spirit to operate within our lives unimpeded.

I write this knowing that the Father still has a lot of pruning to do to me and that by writing this I can see better where the Lord has taken me in law enforcement. I still don't handle all situations properly but with the Lord's help I am getting better. I don't know if writing this was for my benefit or to those that will read it. May God richly bless you as you work for the furtherance of His Kingdom here on earth.

*R. Scott Smith
Cherry Valley, Ont.*

Let us hear from you.

*How can we address your concerns? Why not seek God's direction for your support and involvement with this ministry. Write to the Peacemaker or get in touch with your local chapter.*

Deadline July 28, 1992

It seems like yesterday our Chapter here in Lethbridge was sitting down and deciding to go ahead with the Conference. That was over a year and a half ago and now it is just four months away.

Thanks again for all the help you have been giving us and all the coverage in the Peacemaker.

With the 10th annual C.F.C.P.O. Conference only a few short months away we are putting the final touches on things. The conference will be a great opportunity for all of us to meet with our brothers and sisters in the Lord from many parts of Canada and U.S..

We are planning to have a Banquet on Saturday night, and are asking all members to wear their dress uniforms for this occasion.

Registrations are faithfully coming in and space is filling up. So if you have not registered yet you will have to do it soon to insure a spot.

July 28, 1992 is the dead line for registrations (see registration form on page 21).

Register now and come and enjoy watching the sun climb over the majestic mountains surrounding the camp. You will also enjoy watching the creeks and rivers set out on their long journey to the Arctic Ocean, irrigating the crops and satisfying thirst along the way. As you see all this and smell the pines and watch the deers and squirrels you will be aware of the majesty and power of our creator.

So grab your bed roll, blue jeans and cowboy hat and come West for the Best Conference Yet.

'I AM NOTHING'

If I have mastered language ever so perfectly, yet have not the kind of commitment - love which grips hearts,
I am nothing.
If I have awards, diplomas, decorations and am proficient in all facets of policing yet lack the touch of understanding-love,
I am nothing.

If I'm able to best my opponents in argument, even to the point of exposing their foolishness, yet fail to attract their attention to the life-style of the Gospel,
I am nothing.
If I've great faith, high ideals, magnificent plans and incredible foresight, yet lack the love which sweats and bleeds, weeps prays and pleads,
I am nothing.

If I can thwart all manner of crime, am a distinguished problem-solver, respected and esteemed by my peers, yet carelessly wound hearts and hurt feelings, failing to consider another before myself,
I am nothing.
If I publish books and articles which set the profession agape, yet fail to translate the Word of the Cross into actions applied to my life and career,
I am nothing.

Though I surrender all the opportunity, prospects and comforts which the showy sacrifice of my calling can offer, and even leave home daily prepared to give the supreme sacrifice at any moment for those I'm bound to protect, yet have not the love which yields its rights, its pet plans and coveted leisure-time,
I am nothing....NOTHING!
Virtue has ceased to go out of me.

And, worst of all, though I may be an ultra-competent, busy, fussy professional, marvelously equipped for the service, but like the church at Laodicea found nauseating to Christ, I am nothing....nothing more than another poor soul destined to be consumed by his own pride.

Lord I pray, hold this servant fast to my First Love in
You and cause me to keep my paths and priorities straight!!

to find that it didn't open until 11:30, a half hour after the posted meeting time. Using all our combined police investigative techniques we went to a phone booth and looked up the Tacoma Police Department. Lo and behold there was a listing for Police Chaplain. Being our only U.S. citizen, Warren Wilson was delegated to make the call. He was speaking with the chaplain within a few minutes.

It turned out that the Tacoma chapter hadn't been meeting for some time. Seems there was a lack of interest... (sound familiar?). The chaplain contacted Rob Floberg, the president. Normally Rob can't be reached but someone was on our side that morning. He told us to be at the restaurant in an hour.

Unfortunately we couldn't wait for an hour. Through some mass confusion we had left under the belief that the meeting was at 10 o'clock, not 11. Ravenous, we made a side trip to a local restaurant for breakfast and returned at he appointed time.

Rob had managed to round up 4 or 5 members - quite amazing considering the short notice - and we had an enjoyable visit. The Tacoma chapter was happy to see us. They had stopped meeting recently and needed a bit of a boost. The timing of our trip was a testimony to God's hand in our everyday lives. The trip had been under discussion since November. We had not been able to contact the Tacoma guys, and set out in faith for their appointed meeting time. Had we been successful in contacting them we would have heard they weren't meeting and likely wouldn't have gone.

The Tacoma area has been undergoing a bit of a crime wave. Organized youth gangs from California have arrived with a vengeance and the members are all extremely busy. This is part of the reason for the meetings dying off. I guess the enemy had a real run of success in creating both crime and causing the meetings to cease too.

Anyway, it was a really worthwhile trip. We spoke of common problems with keeping a chapter vibrant and active. Cloverdale is experiencing some problems in this regard. The general conversation at the meetings becomes identical to that at a choir practice, minus the expletives. We will have to work diligently to keep our focus on the more important things.

We are going to explore the possibility of having a common weekend meeting with the Tacoma guys at some point in the future. They wanted to call it the North-West Annual meeting. I quickly pointed out that South West would be more appropriate. Guess that will be the topic of continued negotiation and discussion.

GREATER VANCOUVER CHAPTER

The last few weeks have been very rewarding in the Lord's service. I recently participated in a ministry team to Romania. A hectic schedule saw us ministering about 18 times in 14 days, often in small village churches. The churches would be packed with local residents curious about the "Canadians." A conservative estimate is that well over 400 met Jesus. In street meetings held in Arad and Zalau, many who came to know the Lord were visibly weeping, as the Holy Spirit moved amongst the crowd.

It was a surprise to find that no one had even heard of a Christian Police Officer. Rather than hear preaching, the assemblies wanted to hear a testimony of the saving power of Jesus in police work. They marvelled at the idea of an actual fellowship of Christian Officers. Highlights of the trip included seeing a Romanian police officer accept Christ in Huenedoara, and a high ranking military officer accept Christ in Zalau.

Despite Romania still being under communist Government, the country is now open to the Gospel. There is a sovereign historic move of God in that Nation. Along with medical supplies, we took in Romanian New Testaments. These are in short supply mostly for economic reasons. Despite the poverty of the church we were treated with great hospitality. We also saw several new churches and others under construction. In Prague, Czechoslovakia, we met with a minister who has just purchased property for a Bible school in Czechoslovakia.

Other than a Pentecostal Bible School in Romania, this will be the first Evangelical Bible School behind the former "Iron Curtain."

All these Nations are now open to the Gospel. For some years I have carried a burden for the Eastern European Nations. I have just received a formal invitation from the Estonian police to speak at the National police academy. I will also be returning to Czechoslovakia & Romania. Your prayer support will be much appreciated as God continues to open these doors. I would like to see a team of Christian Officers visit these countries in 1993. If you carry a similar concern please write me.

LA RAVOIRE, FRANCE

For a few years, Michel Clarey, a Municipal police officer and a Christian, has been working very hard to form a chapter of the FCPO in France. Those involved are convinced that one day, there will be an affiliation with our own FCPO.

They have founded in the mean time, an association called "Amicale Fraternité de la Police." They want to see this association become an official chapter of the FCPO with suggestions and help from our leadership to form a chapter. They are committed to working toward the reality of this goal.

They have a burden for their police officers and believe that if they do not make the effort to reach them with the gospel, no one else will.

Please pray for them and our national executive for their leadership in this regard.

Editors Note:

Our special thanks to Perla, co-editors friend, for taking the time to translate the letter from French to English.

OBERNDORF, GERMANY

The founder of Switzerland CPA and Matthias Lehmann met in Peru and stayed for one week attending a Conference of Christian Police officers from south America. Their time together with Officers from Brazil, Argentina, Peru, Bolivia, Salvador, Chili and Ecuador was a blessed one.

Germany's National Conference was held from the 3rd-5th of April 1992. Approximately 250 persons from across Germany attended. Saturday evening highlighted a choir concert preceding a prayer time and hearing reports from different countries. More than 80 members attended.

More to follow from Matthias.

TORONTO, ONTARIO

Toronto is experiencing a "drought" but there are some committed members who are actively keeping the light burning. The President, Jack Turner, also known as the "Hornet", is known to all across Canada. Jack is also the current Secretary of the National Executive and corresponds with all of our members and affiliates overseas, even when he is away in Florida from January to April. The majority of letters that you read are addressed to "Dear Jack." Some are edited for your encouragement, and to bring you an overview of what is happening in the ministry of the FCPO.

John Walker coordinates all Bible meetings and writes a monthly column for the FCPO in the official publication of the News & Views, a metropolitan Toronto Police Association magazine, read by all active and retired members.

Oscar Nelson is the financial administrator and what a job he does. He is a quiet inspiration to all.

Lloyd Tapp is the Secretary and Peacemaker distributor. He is the youngest executive member and enjoying every moment.

Harold Bennett the outreach chairman, is involved with the Deaf Missions in Puerto Rico ministering to them from January to April.

ESTEVAN SASKATCHEWAN

Estevan Chapter's current Executive consists of Jerry Michalski (Estevan City Police) as President, Glen Dumontel (Customs - Torquay/North Portal), as Vice President and David Boyce (RCMP Torquay), Secretary.

Remember "Bob"? He was the young man Jerry Michalski ministered to on Easter Sunday 1991 as "Bob" threatened to take his life (recorded in a testimony Summer 1991 Vol X No.3 of the Peacemaker). Jerry has kept in touch with "Bob" who attended the Full Businessmen's Night (featuring guest speaker Mike DiSanza) as Jerry's guest.

Glen and I also attended that night as representatives of the FCPO. I shared a mini testimony and a brief presentation on what is the FCPO. We received great encouragement and many, although not aware that the FCPO existed, were thrilled to hear of this ministry.

Many questions were asked regarding membership and I was invited to speak by the president of the Full Gospel Businessmen's Southwest Manitoba Chapter, in the Fall of 1992.

We have acted as lay pastors and Sunday school teachers. Youth Bibles have been given to Young Offenders who seem to be crying out for a friend. We ensure that posters, pamphlets of events are posted and distributed to all peace officers, agencies throughout our area. We send out letters promoting ourselves and what the FCPO believes, encouraging contact and new membership. We've led Bible study groups organized local events such as World Vision 30 Hour Famine Fund raising. We are trying and thank each one for your prayers.

Mike DiSanza has a wonderful message. I encourage each one to meet and hear him.

David R. Boyce
Secretary

Many will be encouraged by this report, but you will be encouraged even more when you read David's letter (page 13), because; there is "comfort for all of us." May God bless your endeavors to serve Him.

crime prevention - from page 5

We spend so much of our lives working hard so we can get more "stuff". And then we worry about it being stolen or lost. How much time do we invest in "treasure" which cannot be destroyed? In God and His kingdom. In our families. In our friends.

Choose a good alarm company.

As Christians we need to find a good alarm company which will alert us to potential problems and intruders. The writer to the Hebrews has some good suggestions for us. "Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful; and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more, as you see the day drawing near." (Hebrews 10:23-25)

"Support Your Peacemaker"

In response to the cost of publishing and mailing the Peacemaker, (printed in the Winter 1992 issue), a reader and supporter writes:

If I had a message for your readers, it would be; "come on people, when you give from your abundance don't have a $1.00 mentality when it comes to God's work. It is pretty hard to put a fist in into your wallet, so open up your hand (and your heart) when the Holy Spirit speaks to you, as He will, and gather 'round and support YOUR Peacemaker."

Peacemaker

The Peacemaker is published quarterly by the Canadian Fellowship of Christian Peace Officers, a federal non-profit corporation which encourages peace officers, locally, nationally and internationally to join in fellowship. The express purpose is to reach out to officers and their families with the power of the Gospel of Life.

*Peace officers include police, correctional, customs, excise officers; sheriffs, mayors, justices of the peace; anyone defined as such in the Criminal Code of Canada.

Donations to assist in the production and publication of the Peacemaker are greatly appreciated and tax deductible.
