CFCPO STATEMENT OF FAITH

WE BELIEVE

THE BIBLE: The Scripture of the Old and New Testaments were verbally inspired of God and inerrant in the original writings and that they are the Supreme and final authority for our faith and life (2 Tim. 3:16, 17; 2 Peter 1:20,21).

GRACE: Eternal life is a free gift and cannot be earned. We are saved by grace and not by our own works (Eph. 2:8, 9; Rom. 6:23).

HUMAN: We are sinners, and that by His death upon the cross, the Lord Jesus Christ made a perfect atonement for sin, redeeming us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse in our place (Rom. 3:23; John 3:18; Rom. 10:9,10).

GOD: There is one God. Holy, eternally existing and manifesting Himself to us in three persons. Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is merciful and loves us, but is just and must punish sin (John 14:6, 10; Exodus 34:7; Matt. 28:9; John 3:16).

CHRIST: Jesus Christ is God incarnate. He was supernaturally conceived, born of a virgin, was put to death by crucifixion under Pontius Pilot, was raised from the dead on the third day, and now sits at the Father's right hand whence He is coming again personally, bodily and visibly (Luke 1:26-35; 1 Cor. 15:3, 4; Eph. 1:13; Eph. 4:4,5).

HOLY SPIRIT: The Holy Spirit is God. He indwells all believers having baptized them in the body of Christ at the time of regeneration (Rom. 10:9, 10; 1 Cor. 12:13, 14; Eph. 4:4, 5).

FAITH: All those who by faith receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour, and who confess Him as such before their fellowmen become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ (Rom. 10:9; Eph. 2:8, 9; Rom. 8:16, 17).

JUDGEMENT: Those who reject the love of God and the saving work of Christ will be judged and punished for sin. They will be eternally separated from God (John 16:7-11; Psalm 89:32; Exodus 34:7; Jude 14:15; John 3:18).

This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it, for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have success. Josh 1:8

WILL WE BE FAITHFUL?

Paraphrasing Ephesians 1.1, here is what Paul is saying to us in Canada. "Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, to the saints who are in the (Provinces of Canada), and who are faithful in Christ Jesus." Our reliance upon the word of God must be absolute. His first letter to the Thessalonians in chapter 5 talks about "The Day of the Lord," but as he writes about the Christian Conduct, he reminds us that "Faithful is He who calls you, and He also will bring it to pass." Many are wondering about the decision they made or must make to go to the "field" where the harvest is ready. The times are indicative of the Lord's return. We are to "rejoice always and pray without ceasing"; "give thanks in everything for that is the will of God in Christ; examine everything carefully and hold fast to that which is good" (1 The. 16-17, 21). Let us be encouraged to pray for those who are called and for each other because as brethren, we must.

Your faithfulness to serve is expressive of your reliance upon the word of God as also demonstrated by Paul. He asked that we be faithful to the brethren in prayer. Will we? Together, let us give thanks to the Lord for their faithfulness to Him and to this ministry.

To Ruth and Rob Sweet, for their leadership as editors of the Peaceemaker, we will miss you. As we remember you in prayer, we also thank you for the task well done.

"Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you entirely and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved complete without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." (2 The. 5:23)

FOR A SPECIAL TASK

As we look forward to the approaching Christmas season, let us not forget the reason for the season; the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ. "She will give birth to a son and you are to give Him the name Jesus" (Mat. 1:21). His entry into this world...as a human being...God becoming man...for a very special task. To shed His blood in atonement for our sins; making everlasting life and freedom from death by sin, available to us if we so wish. "To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne" (Rev. 3:21).

As we celebrate Christmas, let us be thankful that "The Word became flesh" and the babe, wrapped in swaddling clothes lying in that manger was God, here for a very special purpose. Merry Christmas!

YOUR LETTERS

"Christian police officers, the minority"

I have been a peace officer with the R.C.M.P. for almost 4 years and I am currently stationed in Broadview, Sask. I would be most interested in becoming a member. Christian police officers are such the minority these days. It would sure be a comfort to share and read about others who wear a uniform, and have given their hearts to Jesus Christ. I was so glad to hear of this organization.

Jeremy Lane
Broadview, Sask.

"Gratitude to all"

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I am writing to advise you of my change of address and to express my gratitude to all who make the "Peaceemaker" possible. My wife and I spend our Winters in the Palm Springs area of California and it was great to have the Peaceemaker waiting when we returned.

Gordon Lewis
Saakatoon, Sask.

"Oneness with other Peace Officers"

I was sent a Peaceemaker magazine by a fellow officer. I had not known that such an organization existed. I enjoyed the articles very much and look forward to being a part of Christ's Family within the CFCPO. God bless your efforts in publishing the Peaceemaker magazine. To me, it gives a sense of "oneness" with other peace officers that share the same faith.

President's Message

I would like to start this letter by thanking the Quebec City members who put on such a great National Conference. Most of all your warm hospitality will be fondly remembered by all who attended.

Larry Wilson

As this issue of the Peacemaker goes out many of us are finding that with Christmas just around the corner our lives are more complicated and busier than we would like them to be. But at this time of year, we as Christians need to be even more alert and willing to extend our hand to those we deal with, who do not know the one, who is the real joy of this season; and the only peace on earth.

The National Executive is busy planning ahead for the up coming conference next year in Lethbridge Alberta. Be watching in the months ahead for more information from this magazine. We have also the 1993 conference location tentatively confirmed and plans are being made for activities to use this organization to reach more of the unsaved law enforcement community. To make the F.C.P.O. everything it can be, we need your help and prayers. There is always room for more workers in God's harvest field. I especially challenge our retired peace officers; we need your knowledge and time in this organization.

In closing I send from my family to yours Christian greetings at this special time of year and we pray that everyone has a Christ centered Christmas.

Message du Président

Je veux commencer cette lettre remerciant les membres de la ville de Quebec, qui ont fait une excellente besogne avec la Conférence Nationale. Nous allons nous souvenir affectueusement de votre hospitalité.

Ainsi que nous recevons cette issue du Peacemaker, plusieurs entre nous trouvons qu'avec Noël qui s'approche très vite, nos vies sont plus compliquées et occupées que normalement. Ceci est le temps de l'année que nous chrétiens devrions être plus alertes et prêts à étendre notre main à ceux avec qui on a contact, qui ne connaissent pas la vraie "joie de Noël, et la seule paix sur terre."

L'Exécutive Nationale est occupée à planifier la conférence qui aura lieu l'an prochain à Lethbridge, Alberta. Garder un coup d'oeil pour plus d'information, dans le Peacemaker. Nous avons une location tentative pour la conférence 1993, ainsi que de divers plans pour utiliser notre organisation pour atteindre des agents de paix qui ne sont pas chrétiens. L'association a besoin de vos prières et votre aide. Dans les champs de la moisson il y a toujours de la place pour plus d'ouvriers. Je donne un défi à nos agents de paix qui sont en retraite, nous avons besoin de votre connaissance et votre temps.

En fermant j'envoie de ma famille à la votre un accueil chrétiens, durant ce joyeux temps d'année, et nous prions que Dieu sera le centre de votre Noël.

We will not likely be able to attend many meetings because of distance, but our prayers are with those who are able to attend. Love in Christ.

Brent Wig
Moosomin, Sask

Brent is a conservation officer; he also sent an application for membership. I am sure that many will be encouraged by this letter and his support of this organization.

"Prayer is our greatest resource"

Please extend our heartfelt thanks to the many Christian officers from the FCPO, who supported our move to Colorado with their faithful prayers. We arrived safely and with no problems at all. Thanks be to God! Prayer is never our last resort, its our most powerful resort. May you all continue above all else to pray in all things first, as it is our greatest resource. May God continue to bless all you who uphold the law as Christian crime fighters.

Marlen and Marilyn Wells
Colorado, USA.

It's good to be able to keep in contact via the Peacemaker. It's always interesting to read how the Lord works through police officers lives. God bless you in your continuing ministry for Him.

Back, to Jesus Christ

I am a peace officer serving with the RCMP in a small northern Manitoba town called Gillum. Gillum has a population of approx-imately 1500 people and our detachment also serves two native reserves, both having a population of about 150-200 people. The detachment consists of 1 sergeant and 5 constables and our hard working steno, who keeps us all going.

I accepted the Lord back into my life about a year ago and have been blessed to receive teaching of the word since that time. To date I am the only police officer out of my detachment who is serving the Lord and I feel the burden, as do some of the citizens of our town about sharing the Gospel with other officers. At the present time, our detachment has been blessed, in that, one of our prison guards whom we call on is a pastor. I would like to receive information from Kirk Lampman, the National Director of Evangelism and Promotion regarding his message in the 1990 Fall issue of the Peacemaker. Please pray with me for the opportunity to start a local men's breakfast in the area.

Cst. Rob Lockhart
Gillum, Manitoba

To Christian Peace Officers in Canada!

It's quite a long time that you got some information from Germany. We are living in a time of changes. Besides the fact that our country got bigger, we got some new contacts from police officers around the world.

In Germany there is now Autumn and the weather gets foggy and rainy. The temperature is going down and within the next two months we'll get some snow. The leaves will turn to many colors and finally fall down. Besides all this, this year brought for us as police officers many changes. The opening of the borders to the east brought many thousands of refugees fleeing from poverty in their countries.

Concerning the faith, we think that

REPORT OF WESTERN CANADA

National Director
Harold Johnson

"Let us draw near...let us hold fast...let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds...encouraging one another, and all the more, as you see the day drawing near." Hebrews 10:22-25.

As I write this report, my prayer is that we will be able to accomplish what is stated in the above. And, I want to give God all the glory for what has been accomplished during this past year. I will tell all of you that I certainly did not have a big part in it. Isn't God a gracious God, He has certainly blessed us.

Bruce Day, our provincial Rep. and president of the Winnipeg chapter reports of an exciting year when they saw one of their men accept Jesus as Saviour. Our Saskatchewan president and provincial Rep., Garth Penn, a truly dedicated servant is busy with Mercer Armstrong of North Sask. helping reorganise the Saskatoon chapter.

I am most thankful for Pastor John Greenwood, (a former peace officer) with the Greater Vancouver chapter and Randie Scott of the Greater Victoria chapter on the Island, for their leadership and work in these areas.

Dave McKenzie, our provincial Rep. in the Calgary chapter also reports of good news and how thankful they are for the leadership of their president, Paul Ruggles. Many of you know Richard Weber, prison chaplain, he has been a real testimony to all of us here in Alberta. I would like to thank Steve Harrington for his tremendous commitment to the Peace River Chapter which, is now inactive. He will remain an encouragement to us.

I want to thank God for the solid core we have here in Edmonton and the privilege we have to serve in His ministry and His promise to be with us always.

EVANGELISM AND PROMOTION

National Director
Kirk Lampman

1990/91 was an exciting year for the CFCPO. Many Peace officers across Canada came to know the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour. Many other Christian officers had their faith rekindled through the work of the FCPO members across the land. One of the greatest tools for evangelism and promotion continues to be the Peacemaker magazine. We wish Art Francis the best in taking over as editor.

Several new contacts were made this year at the Ontario Police College, Aylmer, Ontario. If any members are on course at the O.P.C., the administration is open to FCPO meetings on campus. How about a bible study when you're next there?

In 1991 we began to recruit Provincial Assistant Representatives to help strengthen the FCPO network from coast to coast. So far we have Mercer Armstrong from north Sask., Hank Harley, Mike Mioto, Paul May and Charlie Weir from Ontario. Please pray that many more Asst. Reps. can be found to help in this work.

I have received and answered several calls and letters asking how to develop FCPO programs and events. There are many people interested in furthering the FCPO in our nation. Several of our members also appeared on the TV program, "100 Huntley Street", during their annual Law Enforcement week.

I pray for your continued support of this ministry in 1991/92.

Prayer

† Pray for our Governments and other leaders in authority.

† For your national executive, Provincial Representatives, local chapters and members.

† For direction, wisdom and leadership in this ministry.

† For unity in our faith, courage to accept what we cannot change and wisdom to change what we can.

† Times indicate that circumstances will worsen and the enforcement of the laws of this country will be difficult. For salvation and protection for peace officers and their families across this country.

† For Ruth and Rob Sweet, ex Editors of the Peaceemaker. Rob is studying to become an Anglican Priest.

† For your Peaceemaker staff and contributors.

† For God to use the FCPO as an outreach to win souls for His Kingdom and that He would bring Christians back into the fold.

† Don't forget our unsaved loved ones.

† Continue to pray for Bob, Jerry and Dave as they wait on God to form a chapter in the Estevan, Saskatchewan.

† Remember Ross Howlett and his family. His mother was promoted to glory.

† For Doris Nelson who recently had surgery and is recovering.

† For Oscar Nelson and his family. His father was promoted to glory.

† For the family of our officers slain in the execution of their duties.

† For John Walker, (our 'News and Views' writer in the Toronto Police Association publication).

† For Ron Lussier of Ste. Foy, his church and the Quebec chapter.

† For the Lethbridge chapter and those involved with the planning of next years conference.

† For the salvation of police officers in the Eastern block

☆ Praise for a successful conference in Quebec.

"Failure to communicate causes mistakes"

By Art Francis

Prayer, is it a past time, an outward gesture or a heart to heart talk with God? What do we accomplish when we use prayer as a past time, gesture or a talk with God? When we talk with God, do we come in the right frame of mind and spirit?

I am concerned and believe, that without prayer, this ministry will not progress until we communicate, heart to heart with God about our needs.

I listen to many preachers, teachers, missionaries and others who say that their success in the ministry God has called them to, is a result of their prayer life, meditation on the word of God and faith to act upon it's promises.

Lack of prayer?

Are we unsuccessful because we lack the principle of prayer that causes God to work in our ministries?

I have been a member of the FCPO since 1981, a police officer for fifteen years, other prior business related experience and a husband going on eighteen years. I know there are guidelines set down by which, success is to be achieved. Is it any different for the Christian, in the ministry of sharing their knowledge of salvation, with the hope of souls being saved?

Are we willing?

How much are we willing or willing to be willing? Do we have a choice in the way we are prepared to serve?

THE VISION

By
Kirk Lampman

I am writing to you on behalf of the National Executive of the Canadian Fellowship of Christian Peace Officers. I have an urgent need to share and I hope you will consider a positive response to this appeal. In September, 1990, the National Executive grasped a vision to see the CFCPO revitalized across the nation. Many chapters had ceased to function while others progressed slowly with no central direction and unity.

The vision is to select and appoint "PROVINCIAL REPRESENTATIVES" responsible for the care and maintenance of FCPO chapters in their respective provinces. To encourage local chapters and report to the National Executive. The goal is to see inactive chapters reactivated and supported through regular contact and fellowship and also to oversee and promote new chapters.

To date there have been Provincial Representatives appointed in British Columbia, the Western Provinces and Quebec. I am the Provincial Representative for Ontario. I cannot do the job alone. Ontario is too vast for me to cover alone. I seek your assistance in establishing "AREA REPRESENTATIVES" within the province of Ontario. This way, the load can be shared by many. I ask you to consider being an "Area Representative" for your area. I will send you maps detailing your local active and inactive chapters. I will also provide Peaceemaker magazine mailing lists that may help you in establishing new contacts or chapters in your area.

Area Representative Job

Description

1. Contact existing chapters and encourage them.
2. Encourage defunct chapters to re-activate.
3. Coordinate special events (pizza nights, peace officer appreciation services, music nights, testimony breakfast etc.).
4. Attempt to contact people in your area who received Peaceemaker magazines but moved with no forwarding address. The goal is to reinstate them to the Peaceemaker list.

We need your help now! Please contact me as soon as you can so I can establish the Ontario Provincial network from north to south and east to west.

If you have any questions or concerns, please write to me at home: 1043 Havendale Blvd., Burlington, Ontario L7P 3P7 or call me: 1-416-332-3460. I can also be contacted at the Halton Regional Police Service, 1-416-878-5511, Ext. 305.

Kirk Lampman is the CFCPO National Director of Evangelism and Promotion. He is a dedicated man and needs our support. He reminds us in quoting Mathew 18-20 "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." It is a huge task, write, support and encourage your Directors.

News and Information

The Winnipeg Police Dept. is considering a Police Chaplaincy program for their membership. A police oriented certificate program is necessary, to deal with a crisis, marital or death situation. Any one with information regarding a correspondence course or program that will qualify one for such a position, contact constable Bruce Day of the Winnipeg Police Dept., or write to the Peaceemaker with the information.

"How much have we forgotten?"

Sometime during 1991, each of us will become a year older. I think of what we have learned from all of our experiences and due to our aging, how much have we forgotten. In life, there are certain things we ought to forget but, for some reason those are the things that fight for first place in our daily existence. They do their best to push aside those things we ought not to forget. If we went to our various churches since January, we have heard about 21(or more) assorted sermons. How much have we learned and how much did we retain?

"Take time, renew our lives daily"

I am guessing we are all of average intelligence and that is part of the reason we forget. How much more we should "renew our lives daily." To renew our acquaintance with the scriptures and with our Lord in prayer. To try and fill the voids in our lives with something real as only Christ can do take time to pray; for your church families and your church leaders. Take time to bathe in God's love.

Tom Weaver
Moncton, N.B.

Ruth & Jack Foster

If you did not attend the September conference in Quebec you missed a great time of fellowship and inspiration. Our brother-in-law and Christ, Deputy Chief Mark Kroeker, of the L.A.P.D. was the speaker. He challenged our hearts with an inspirational message. Our appreciation goes to Ron Lussier and all his associates of the St. Foye chapter whose dedication and commitment made our meeting a great success. Our kindred spirits transcended any difficulty with the language barrier.

At the conclusion of the conference with our spiritual batteries recharged, we set out for New Brunswick accompanied by our National Secretary, Jack (The Hornet) Turner and his wife Laura.

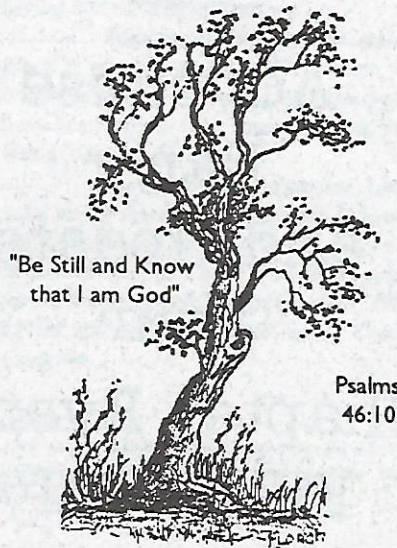

Together, we visited several local police offices and RCMP detachments. In St. John, we visited Albert and Trudy Hamm, Rev. Lloyd Lake, Thor Broderson and his wife Willy, Rev. Wally Collett, a born-again Anglican Priest and retired RCMP officer, Rev. & D/Sgt. James Fudge, Chaplain for the St. John Police, among many. I had the opportunity to share about the FCPO in uniform for a T.V production "Religious Reflections"; singing and sharing with over 40 interested parties at the Broderson's residence. Unfortunately, we were unable to meet the Clowaters and others.

We stopped in Sussex enroute to Moncton. At the RCMP detachment, we made contact with Ken Babin and Graham Milner. Then in Moncton we met our host family, Sgt. Ken Smith, his wife Bonny and sons, Kirk and David. We were encouraged by Ken for the work God is doing in their chapter since the (Hornet) Jack Turner encouraged him to re-activate the chapter. I was glad to see Ken and Bob Moores at the conference and we are excited that our 1993 conference will be held in Moncton. I would challenge all those in the Maritime to support these men and their members in this undertaking.

We then headed for Halifax, Nova Scotia. At the Citadel Hotel with Chief Vince MacDonald, retired RCMP officer, Lloyd Mitchell and John Carter we had lunch and fellowship expressing our desire to see the Moncton chapter re-activated.

Finally we met Chaplain Ron Seneay of New Germany, our Atlantic Province Rep. As we had fellowship I realized that we need to pray for others to assume the duties of Asst. and Area Reps. Your National Executive needs representatives out in the field to liaison among our Law Enforcement officers and their families for the Chief of Chiefs, the Lord Jesus Christ.

For the KINGDOM of GOD is not a matter of EATING and DRINKING but of RIGHTEOUSNESS, PEACE and JOY in the HOLY SPIRIT because ANYONE who SERVES CHRIST in this way is PLEASING to God and APPROVED by MEN. Let us THEREFORE make EVERY EFFORT to do what LEADS to peace and to MUTUAL EDIFICATION.

Gardener Extraordinaire

by

Jack Turner

Spring!.....new talents appear for the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under the security of the great composer-conductor, Leonard Bernstein.

Checking out a piece of empty frontage she plans and draws her concept of what is to come. The landscape is being readied for work..

New portfolios of music come from the master's hand. The musicians tune up their instruments...the brass, strings, piano and soloists are there.

Travelling through gardening magazines and nursery books, checking every detail of stock, and then she buys. Her music is flowers, evergreens, mixed with rock, roots and pots, according to the plan.

The leader checks out the acoustics, the background of scenery and the talent. Some are eliminated, not mature as yet. There are rehearsals and then....

Pulling the weak from the garden she picks the plants and carefully places them, having regard to bloom, shade, sun drainage - all play a part.

The orchestra is ready for opening night. Ladies in their fancy best. Gentlemen neatly groomed. All are seated in the beautiful setting.

She readies her garden and because it grows it takes time, as she nurtures it daily with love. Passers by with wishful eyes.

The soloists are top people in their endeavor and are dressed appropriately. All is shined and ready as the first chords are struck. Another season has begun.

She watches closely as flowering plants close in together as a big family. They surround the evergreens and the tall Kostzer Blue stands out like a guard over all. The bonsai shaped Golden Phitzer is surrounded by flowers, reaching up as a ladies hem line to her dress.

At last the finale draws nigh on opening night. The crowd applauds. There is a standing ovation. "More, more" they cry, and they perform once again.

Everything perfect and in place. Car loads of people stop and stare. The setting is perfect for pictures. Some do. Nature has not disappointed, but without the master gardener, all would have been in vain.

Crowds surround the maestro, Leonard Bernstein, and other favorites from the orchestra are congratulated. They express desires toward next year.

Acknowledging the interest shown, she answers questions of gardeners and those who hope to be. The garden seems to bow down in gratitude for her.

Then, alas, the orchestra picks up their instruments to show the end of another successful season. The conductor composer plans ahead.

Sadly recognizing that Fall is approaching all too fast, she sees her canvas droop, as in art. And she knows it is time to pause and thank God for His perfect gift, for giving her the perfect garden.

The concert hall is bare and the place is cleaned up for another year. The doors will soon be locked and the people have scattered to their happy homes, for it was a 'very good year'.

BRIEF HISTORY OF CANYON CHURCH CAMP

Canyon Church Camp was established in 1940 by the United Church. The church wanted to provide a facility where young men and women could be challenged physically, mentally and spiritually as they experience the beautiful mountains surrounding the camp. Today, the camp is still funded by the United Church, but is operated by the Y. M. C. A. Several groups and/or organisations throughout the Province visit the camp every year.

JUNE	APRIL 24
SEPTEMBER	JULY 24
DECEMBER	OCTOBER 23

And, if we are willing, should we not take the advice of the One who in everything, communicated with His Father that His will be done? We, who are instruments or workers in the business of winning souls, must be willing to do His will and not ours. How we do it will decide our success. "Let's get it together."

SUGGESTION

"Ensure that you know the Lord as your personal savior before you attempt to establish a daily or regular prayer time with Him"

Selwyn Hughes

Blessings at Victory Baptist

You had to have been there to enjoy the blessings God bestowed on the congregation of the Victory Baptist Church and members of the FCPO. Harold Bennett led the singing, Ruth and Jack Foster sang "Jesus is all I need" "What Can I do to bring them home to you" and "Five rows back." Jack Turner, barely able to speak, read the scripture from John's gospel. Art Francis shared on "being alert" spiritually in these times and the need to love the Savior. David McCullough and several other peace officers participated in the Police Appreciation Day by sharing in the Sunday school teaching and morning service; put together by God's servant, LeVerne Ellenberger. Pastor Bell then gave the invitation and two came to the Lord. What a blessing!

it will take quite some time to find some Christians in the police forces.

I travelled some weeks ago to Hungary. They have over there many Christians but no Christian Police Officers.

Concerning East Germany we have just 3 or 4 addresses for the whole country.

On the other side the work in West Germany is growing. We are about 1000 Police Officers in number. We publish to our groups your prayer and praise requests.

Thank you for the information and if any members of the Canadian Peacemakers visits Germany let us know we will try to arrange some contact with German members.

We hope you had a blessed national meeting from 13-15 September 1991 in St.Elzear de Bauce.

May God bless you in your work.

Matthias Lehmann
Germany.

Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God...this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is...his good, pleasing and perfect will.' (Romans 12: 1-2)
