CFCPO STATEMENT OF FAITH

WE BELIEVE

THE BIBLE: The Scripture of the Old and New Testaments were verbally inspired of God and inerrant in the original writings and that they are the Supreme and final authority for our faith and life (2 Tim. 3:16, 17; 2 Peter 1: 20, 21).

GRACE: Eternal life is a free gift and cannot be earned. We are saved by grace and not by our own works (Eph. 2:8, 9; Rom. 6:23).

HUMAN: We are sinners and that by His death upon the cross, the Lord Jesus Christ made a perfect atonement for sin, redeeming us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse in our place (Rom. 3:23; John 3:18; Rom. 10:9, 10).

GOD: There is one God. Holy, eternally existing and manifesting Himself to us in three persons. Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is merciful and loves us, but is just and must punish sin (John 14:6, 10; Exodus 34:7; Matt. 28:9; John 3:16).

CHRIST: Jesus Christ is God incarnate. He was supernaturally conceived, born of a virgin, was put to death by crucifixion under Pontius Pilot, was raised from the dead on the third day, and now sits at the Father's right hand whence He is coming again personally, bodily and visibly (Luke 1:26-35; 1 Cor. 15:3, 4; Eph. 1:13; Eph. 4:4, 5).

HOLY SPIRIT: The Holy Spirit is God. He indwells all believers having baptized them in the body of Christ at the time of regeneration (Rom. 10:9, 10; 1 Cor. 12:13, 14; Eph. 4:4, 5).

FAITH: All those who by faith receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour, and who confess Him as such before their fellowmen become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ (Rom. 10:9; Eph. 2:8, 9; Rom. 8:16, 17).

JUDGEMENT: Those who reject the love of God and the saving work of Christ will be judged and punished for sin. They will be eternally separated from God (John 16:7-11; Psalm 89:32; Exodus 34:7; Jude 14:15; John 3:18).

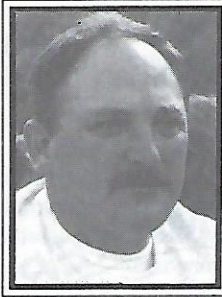

This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it, for then you will make your way prosperous; and then you will have success. (Josh. 1:8)

Message du président
President's Message

Larry
Wilson

J'ouvre ma lettre en remerciant tous ceux et celles qui ont été responsable au succès de notre conférence en Alberta! Je ne veux pas tenter de remercier les individus en nommant leurs noms, car je crains oublier quelqu'un, mais nous allons toujours nous souvenir de votre amitié.

La pose des montagnes rocheuses a été un milieu pour éprouver le commandement "SOYÉ CALME ET AVÉ LA CONNAISSANCE QUE JE SUIS DIEU". Ajouté ceci a l'émouvant témoignage de notre orateur spécial, et nos agents de paix qui sont venu, et vous avez une recette pour une conférence plein de succès.

Lorsue j'écris cette lettre je me repel à la valeur que je place sur mes amitiés et mes relations professionnels avec lesquelles j'ai été béni à travers ce ministère. Ma bible me dit de prendre soin et nourrir mes relations avec ceux qui sont du même esprit, et je crois qu'aujourd'hui plus que jamais nous les agents de paix chrétiens devons prier pour l'un et l'autre, et nous devons nous soutenir durant les temps d'épreuves.

Je sais que ceux qui font parti du bureau National, prient chaque jour pour les membres de la fraternité, afin qu'ils puissent obtenir de la sagesse spirituel et de la protection contre l'ennemi. En se soutenant a travers nos priere nous pouvons etre plus que des vainqueurs pour Dieu.

En conclusion je vous demande de prier pour nous, ainsi nous allons prié pour vous. Je vous souhaite un Joyeux Noël, et j'espère que Jésus se trouvera le centre de votre vie.

Que Dieu bénis!

I must start this letter by thanking everyone who did so much work to make this year's conference in Alberta such a success.

I will not attempt to thank individuals by name, for fear of leaving someone out, but the kindness shown to us will always be remembered.

In no other setting does the commandment of "BE STILL AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD" Apply as it does when you are surrounded by the majesty and might of the rocky Mountains. Add to this the thrilling testimony of our special speaker, the fellowship of law enforcement personnel from various parts of this country and you have the recipe for a successful conference.

As I write this letter I am again reminded of how much value I put on the friendships and professional relationships that I have been blessed with through this ministry. My Bible tells me to take special care and to nurture my relationships with those of like minds, and I believe that today more than ever before we as Christians in law enforcement need to be praying for each other, and supporting one another in times of testing and trials.

I know those involved in the National Office pray daily for those involved with the C.F.C.P.O. for spiritual wisdom and protection from the attacks of the enemy. By supporting each other through prayer we can be more than over comers in Christ.

In closing PRAY for us as we PRAY for you, and from the national office may this be a CHRIST centered Christmas for all of you.

God Bless,

 INTRODUCING ... THE CANADIAN F.C.P.O. PEACEMAKER ***

In Job 8:7 we read: "Though thy beginning was small ... yet thy latter end should greatly increase" (K.J.V).

We are really encouraged by these words as the First Edition of The Canadian F.C.P.O. Peacemaker comes off the press. We, as F.C.P.O. members, have expectant hearts that God will really use this new Christian magazine which is designed for all peace officers and their families.

The purpose of The Peacemaker is to exalt Christ, to encourage believers, to share the Good News of God's unfailing love with unsaved officers and lead them to the Saviour, and to assist in the formation of new F.C.P.O. Chapters in Canada from coast to coast.

For some time, the F.C.P.O. members in the Toronto area have wanted to make contact with other peace officers across this great nation. The Peacemaker will attempt to do this by relating to peace officers and their families with articles on many interesting subjects: testimonies, information on upcoming events, and a host of other topics that may be of interest to you and of value to others.

This is your magazine, so feel free to submit any stories, poems, jokes, cartoons, testimonies, hobbies, recipes, comments, etc.

We look forward to hearing from you in the near future. In the meantime ... happy reading!

The Wonder of God!

by
Art Francis

I attended with others from Ontario, the 10th Annual CFCPO convention, held August 28-31, in Waterton, Alberta. It was my first trip out west and I have nothing but praise and thanks to God for His wonders.

It began at Calgary Airport, meeting Bill Plomp, an Inspector with the Lethbridge Police Department. While driving to his home approximately two and a half hour ride, I listened to Bill talk about a rare blood disorder he has with no cure for it. But there is hope, Bill explained, if the drug "neupogen" would be approved for his use. His faith in Christ encouraged me because of the wonder of God's love, so evident in his life.

When we arrived Larry Wilson, Dick Hayward and I, met his wife Marie, daughters, friends and a special young man, Ric. Ric challenged me by his sincere desire to read the scriptures for our devotional with Bill's family. Ric is not a Christian and reminded us that he chose to do it and would not have it any other way.

Later that night, we were given a car, filled with gas, motel accommodation for the night and encouraged to visit the Rockies before going to Canyon Camp, in Waterton. Our hosts were more than gracious, they are Angels.

0805hrs we drove toward Montana and about 0935hrs, met the Turners and Fosters (not planned, see photo on page 21) on route 17, on their way to Canyon Camp. We shared in that wonder of God. At about 10:15hrs, we entered the Glacier National Park, some people were wearing Winter jackets and as we reached heights of about 8987' I marvelled at the awesomeness of God's handiwork, His majesty and greatness.

The beauty of God's handiwork will consume you, and you will not be able to capture it on tape or photograph. You must experience it; it is like being born again. We arrived at Canyon Camp at about 1930hrs, Friday, 28th, in rain and fairly cold temperatures, but the warmth of God's fellowship over the weekend, made it feel like a Summer Camp.

The Holy Spirit ministered in ways I cannot describe except to say; that Mike DiSanza's testimony and preaching challenged us to be courageous; to "PRAY, PRAY, PRAY" for God to use us to testify to our brothers and sisters in the Law Enforcement profession.

Our FCPO brothers and sisters from the "Great West", will always be remembered for their warm hospitality, love and graciousness.

Finally, as we ponder about God's Wonder of wonders, the Lord Jesus Christ, let us not forget that it was His Love that saved us. The reason for the season. He came to tell us that there is salvation if we accept Him and to remind us that we must pass on the good news to our spouses, family, neighbours and friends. The wonder of God's presence and fellowship with His Spirit, will lead us to praise Him and thank Him for His promises and love and to serve him all the rest of our lives in holiness.

Miriam and I want to thank you for the privilege of serving our God, in this ministry to peace officers and their families. Without our contributors, staff, your letters and most of all your prayers and financial support, it would be impossible to produce this Peacemaker. So to God we give thanks, praise and glory for His faithfulness to us.

As we remember the birth of our Lord, may our hearts experience the warmth of His touch, when we first loved Him. It is our prayer that our relationship with Him will grow stronger each day and we will remain faithful to Him especially in these last days.

Merry Christmas and may the Joy of the Lord remain with you and your family, throughout the coming year!

stand like a rock;
in matters of taste swim like the current."

CHRISTMAS IN A RECESSION

by Heather Percy

Doom and gloom is predicted for the Christmas "industry" again this year. Millions are out of work across our country, and even more will be unemployed by the end of the year if we once again cut down on our Christmas spending. We, for the most part, are the fortunate ones. We have jobs, and job security.

A TIME TO GIVE

Recently I've been studying the laws of the Old Testament. This exercise has reminded me once again of God's laws of stewardship. The Israelites were to be stewards of the promised land, and the first of every family, animals and crops were to be given back to God. There were many laws and directives given to those who had surplus, directing them to share with the poor. We are perhaps used to hearing the principles of stewardship taught within our churches as principles of tithing. But goes far beyond the principle of giving a tenth of our incomes to God and His work. The principle of stewardship indicates that we must share whatever we have with those who have a greater need than we ourselves do.

In 2 Corinthians chapter 8, verses 12 to 14, Paul is talking about an offering of money. His teaching here is an extension of the stewardship principles of the Old Testament. In our society today, financial stewardship is a very practical means of practicing stewardship, since most of us don't have cattle and crops from which to give. But there are many other ways we can share what we have with others. And remember that stewardship does not relate to a fixed percentage of our incomes. It has to do with us sharing what we have with those who have less than we do - and not keeping score.

Well, that was a rather lengthy introduction to the topic of Christmas in a Recession. But I have been struck with a fresh understanding of stewardship as I think of the fast approaching Christmas Season.

Christmas is a wonderful time of good will among most people, and of giving and receiving gifts. After all, we are celebrating the greatest gift of all - God's gift of His Son. I would challenge you, therefore, to look at sharing and giving in a new way this year. Generally, we have all that we need. When we need some essential of life, we go out and buy it. So when it comes time to select Christmas gifts for each other, we have a difficult time choosing something which will be of real value or benefit to the receiver. If we apply the principle of stewardship to Christmas, what will that do to our current practices of gift giving?

There are so many needy people around us these days. Let's look for ways that we can share what we have with some one in need, this year.

We usually consider Christmas to be a time to celebrate, if we're not too exhausted from the rush and anxiety of preparing for these celebrations. But should we be celebrating while so many around us are sad and unemployed this year? Yes!

A TIME TO CELEBRATE

When God gave Israel the laws by which they were to live, He also appointed many days of celebration throughout the year. The people were to cease from work on these days. There was a celebration of their deliverance from Egypt (Passover), a celebration of First Fruits (first of their crops), a celebration of Harvest, and the list goes on. (An example of these celebrations is given in Deuteronomy 16:1-17, 26:1-15) At these times the entire nation ceased from work, and feasted and worshipped God, and had a great party of celebration.

The principle of stewardship was also very apparent in these celebrations, however. The foreigners and slaves were included, and the rich and the poor celebrated together.

So we have a principle to be good stewards and share what we have with others in need. And we have a principle which supports celebrations, rather than considering them to be wasteful endeavors. How can we apply this to the approaching Christmas season?

Here are some examples of ways I've heard of others celebrating the Christmas season.

→ All gifts must be made by the giver. This means that more love and care has gone into the gift than with a more expensive, purchased gift.

→ Donate some of your time to an Inner City mission for the distribution of food hampers. If possible, also participate in the delivery of some of these hampers.

→ Encourage your children to purchase a nice, new toy, and have them deliver it to a children's charity.

→ One church I know of, rented a flat-bed trailer and towed it around their neighborhood, singing carols.

→ Include others, who have no family or friends, in your Christmas Day festivities.

→ Instead of mailing Christmas cards, use that money to support a family in need.

These are just a few ideas. Personally, I have always liked the idea of a "Little House On The Prairie" type of Christmas, where each family member gave a gift to just one other family member, and Christmas was spent celebrating their love for each other, rather than bemoaning gifts that were the wrong size.

I trust that you will have a wonderful Christmas this year, and that you will be extra blessed as you find special ways to share with others during this Christmas season. Celebrate and share.

URGENT NOTICE! URGENT NOTICE! URGENT NOTICE!

The executive and staff of the Peacemaker extend sincere thanks for your prayers and financial gifts. We rely solely on God for your giving to maintain the publication of the Peacemaker. It is the only means of communication between our members and adherents across the nation and overseas. May God bless you for your faithful commitment.

The following was presented to the Miriam, co-editor, by a young girl after a church service in Keswick, Ontario. Both services were conducted by members of the CFCPO at the Maple Hill Baptist Church on Sunday, October 10. What a blessing!

YOUR LETTERS

"It's Great!"

I saw your display while attending the North American Wildlife Enforcement Officers' Association Conference in Ottawa July 15-19. I never knew such an organization as yours existed - it's great!

Bob Reside
Marathon, Ont.

Bob is a National Park Warden. We welcome you aboard dear brother.

"A Change of Heart"

Hi from the Estevan gang once again! Thought we'd write again with news of another Testimony. "God is Great" and he keeps on proving his love for us time and time again. The following occurrence is just another example of how he works in our lives and comes through when the crunch is on.

On JUL 18 (92), I received a call-out request to assist Estevan RCMP Det. to search for a missing person. "Norm" is 72 years old and hales from Carnduff, Sask. Things were not going well for him. He had several strokes in the past, suffered from Asthma attacks, and severe depression. He often has a lack of oxygen to the brain and carries oxygen with him in his vehicle. He gets a feeling of paranoia sometimes and wants to get away from all people. Norm had an argument with his wife the night before and left home without telling her where he was going. She was very concerned about him and reported his absence to police. At about 6:00 a.m., he had been stopped by U.S. Authorities near the Canadian Customs Port of North Portal, Sask. Before they could ascertain his problem, he drove away from them and crossed back into Canada without checking with Canada Customs. A province wide alert was put over the air for Norm shortly afterwards.

At about 3:30 p.m., a farmer found Norm's vehicle abandoned at the end of an old road allowance entering into a pasture area not far from the Souris River Valley. Norm had left his oxygen supply locked in the vehicle along with his shoes; he had wandered off somewhere.

Dave BOYCE (Estevan Det.) escorted me to the location of Norm's vehicle (approximately 10 km N.W. of North Portal). Here, we met with Csts. Lyle SOLES another CFCPO member and Dan GREGORASH from Carnduff Det. Ben PRYSTAY and Kelly FALCONER were already there from Estevan Det. At approximately 6pm., my partner, police service dog "Timber", was ready for action and would be used in the search for Norm along with an RCMP plane.

Dave led us in a quick prayer before the search started asking God to help us in finding Norm. The general feeling was that he may have already succumbed by now without oxygen. We all took different directions and started our search on foot. Thirty minutes later, "Timber" used his God given nose and power of scent to find Norm laying face down in some buck-brush.

What shocked us most was that he was alive and sat up as "Timber" nudged him under his stomach. He was disorientated, but remembered his name. His subsequent comment of "I laid down and didn't think I would wake up again" was a sober reminder to us that Norm had planned not to ever come home again.

Norm was taken to Estevan Hospital and later transferred to Regina for further treatment but made it okay.

Afterwards, I kept recalling how Dave had led us in prayer and God's promise as given in MATHEW 18 vs. 19-20. "Whenever two on earth agree about anything you pray for it, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three come together in my name, I am there with them." HE delivered on that promise - for Norm!

In the hospital, Norm stated that he realized that life is worth living after all - he now

Early in 1982, members from the OPP, Durham and Metro Police Forces joined together for fellowship and study in the Word of God.

On August 19, 1992, at the residence of Lloyd and Dianne Tapp, our Peacemaker distributors, members of the Durham Regional and Metro Police Forces, their wives and children joined together again to discuss the possibility of forming a chapter.

It is 10 years and FCPO members are still praying for a chapter in the Durham Region, where approximately 800 peace officers work and reside. It was an answer to pray!

Members of the Toronto Chapter attended to give their support and encouragement but you had to be there to experience the mood and excitement in that house. It was good to have Dino Doria, founding member of the CFCPO, past National and Toronto president and his wife Lynn, there to say how it began. Dino, now a Sergeant with Metro Inter Community Relations Unit, believes that "it takes a cop to reach a cop." "When the FCPO began, I always believed that if God was in it, it would prosper, no matter who was leading it", he said.

Another long time member, Jim Snee, a Staff Sergeant with Metro Toronto, shared about the times when members came to his hospital bed and prayed for him. He remembers Norm Brown, a former Metro Toronto Police officer, now a professional counsellor, with his Bible in hand walking to the operating room with him.

He reminded us, that the FCPO should not be a replacement for our church but we should "not forsake Christian Fellowship." "It should be the MOTTO for peace officers to reach officers and to encourage members to reach out in Christ's name." "It is most effective getting together, because we are vulnerable like anyone else." "Bare each others burden, support each other prayerfully, visit each other in the hospital. "Be a practical group because practical fellowship is the important thing."

Durham needs our continued prayer and support as obstacles will be placed to prevent this chapter from prospering. "For we are looking all the time not at the visible things but at the invisible. The visible things are transitory: it is the invisible things that are really permanent" (2 Cor. 4:18. J.B. Phillips).

So, "Let us by the name of our Lord Jesus

"Great Joy and Encouragement"

It truly was a blessing to have met all of you. What a joy flooded our hearts as we read the articles in our Peacemaker and to think we were all together. What a weekend! It was much more than we anticipated. Isn't that great how God answers in ways we can't imagine? It shall remain in our hearts for a long time.

Mike and Anne were such a blessing as they spoke to us and the Lord truly stretched out His hand and ministered to many hearts there, especially ours.

We were so reminded of God's majesty sitting amidst the mountains and remembering, where our help comes from.

It truly was a blessing to be together and the privilege God gives us to be a family, floods our hearts with such love.

To each of you who were there, we want to say thanks for "your love has given us great joy and encouragement, because you brothers and sisters have refreshed the hearts of the saints."

Looking forward to the next time the Lord shall reunite us again. Till we meet again, "the Lord watches between me and thee while we're apart."

"Recommit Yourself"

Greetings in Jesus Name!!!
We arrived home after three full days in Waterton National Park at the F.C.P.O. Annual Convention.

There were approximately 55 adults and 25 children in attendance - what a wonderful time of fellowship. The Lethbridge Chapter did a fine job.

Arrival and registration Friday evening was marred by cold wet snowy weather, but we sure got to know each other quickly as we gathered around the Camp Lodge stone fireplace and the bottomless coffee pot!! While some stayed in cabins and near-by camp site, others of us opted for motels in town.

The guest speakers, Mike Di Sanza and his wife Jane, from Florida, were a delight for heart and soul. Mike is a retired cop from New York - he worked for 22 years in Harlem, with his wife and kids praying him through daily.

You had to see and hear Mike to believe him. He personified the words "active Christian". If he wasn't telling jokes, singing and praising God, or doing his "two step for Jesus", he was climbing mountains or offering prayers of encouragement. Oh how we wish you each could have been there to benefit from his enthusiasm and love of Christ and life.

Saturday and Sunday brought sunshine and fun. We met, sang, prayed and learned of God's love and greatness.

We also became tourist! We climbed hills, watched squirrels, deer, bear and mountain sheep. After supper Saturday evening we watched the Parks Conservation Officers tranquilize and remove a black bear from our camp lodge area. Quite an experience for the kids ... and the "big kids" too!!!

Meeting the faces behind the FCPO Executive and Peacemaker was a delight. Jack & Ruth Foster, Jack & Laura Turner, Larry Wilson and Art Francis - what an honor to meet and pray with these Vision Filled Peace Officers, and to learn that they are praying for each and every Chapter - they truly care.

Now its our turn to encourage each of you to recommit yourselves to be active in FCPO.

*Love in Christ

"Man's Futile Expression"

The 1992 CFCPO Conference was held in a valley at a high elevation at the north end of Glacier National Park which is in the state of Montana. Waterton Camp is at the southern edge of Alberta.

Of all the places in Canada, this probably has it's own regal grandeur above most other locales.

Dick Hayward, Past President and founding member of the CFCPO, is caught in the act of sketching the Mountain River scene. The scenes shown here were also done as he traveled through the Rockies, to the CFCPO conference in Waterton, Alberta.

These scenes are available to you in 8"x11" prints.

Write to obtain your copy. All contributions of $10.00 or more go to the CFCPO, Peacemaker, kindness of Dick.

Special thanks to Bill Plomp who loaned his car. We would have seen little without his generosity.

How anyone can fully enjoy this majestic splendor without acknowledging our Lord as it's Creator has to lose the breathless beauty that one surrenders to God and Christ under those circumstances.

I have tried to capture this in sketches. Others have, on film and video, or in prose or poetry or in song or music. The end result is only man's futile expression, an attempt to communicate the impossible.

There are many words in Isaiah that try and compare our futility in describing our Creator God with the solidness and greatness of mountains. It was in the camp we stayed that a bear was shot with a tranquilizer gun and moved elsewhere. Grizzlies in Montana have forced black bears into town to forage for food. Recently, a black bear killed a deer in a back yard and a cougar did the same thing - both in daylight.

Paul reminds us in Romans that we are all without excuse for not worshipping the Creator because His creation declares Himself. He also says that not only we, but the whole of creation, groans for redemption.

A promise is given in Isaiah Chapter 11 and 65 about the beauty that can be expected on this earth when Jesus reigns.

"The wolf will live with the lamb. The leopard will lie down with the goat. The calf and the lion and the yearling together; and a little child will lead them. The cow will feed with the bear, their young will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox. The infant will play near the hole of the cobra and the young child put his hand into the viper's nest. They will neither harm nor destroy in my holy mountain. For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea" (Isaiah 11:6-9).

When this happens, maybe our present duties will be completed.

Now, beyond the present vista's and the glorious promises for the Christian's future, was the Fellowship of Law Enforcement Officers, their spouses and children. This encouragement is needed by us all and which so many of you beloved brothers and sisters missed.

I hope you enjoy the sketches. (see page 12-13). With God's blessing, hope to see more of you in Moncton, N.B. in 1993.

Christian Love,
Your Brother, in-LAW
Dick Hayward.

"Blessed With Dear Friends"

Sixteen years ago this May, I graduated from 6 months of training in Regina, as a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. My first posting after training was to Blairmore, Alberta. I'll never forget those first days of training and transfer to Blairmore. They are as vivid to me as they were when they happened. I have been truly blessed by God during my days in Alberta. Our three girls Rebecca (10), Deborah (7) and Mary (5) were born there. Leona and I were married after my second transfer from Blairmore to Sherwood Park Alberta and over the last 16 and a half years of service I have been blessed with many dear friends.

It is with mixed emotions that we left Sherwood Park on a transfer to Ottawa, Ontario. We will be closer to our parents, brothers and sisters, who still live in Hamilton. Instead of being 4 days away by car, we will only be 6 hours away. We wanted you to know how much we appreciate and love you as dear friends, brought into our lives through God's sovereign will. We will have you in our hearts and prayers.

There was so much to do, and we're sure you can appreciate that visiting everyone before the transfer on 1992-07-02, was impossible. Please accept this letter as our way of saying good-bye from Alberta.

Alberta detachment is currently in the United Nations Peacekeeping Corps in Yugoslavia. Some of you may remember Jay from the 1989 National Conference held in Sundre, Alberta. We have received several letters from Jay who is experiencing harrowing times but its encouraging to hear of his growing trust in the Lord for his protection there and for his wife and children here in Alberta.

Please write to Jay as he would appreciate hearing an encouraging word from you. Also, remember his family in prayer.

"Let us draw near...let us hold fast...let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds...encouraging one another and all the more, as you see the day drawing near" (Heb.10:22-25).

My prayer is that we will be able to accomplish what is in the statement above. These are tumultuous times in our world, and maybe, some of us have had hard times, grieving times trials and tribulations. Therefore, we need to take some time to rest and fellowship and be an encouragement to each other.

Last year from Alberta, Mike and Gwen HOLLAND, my wife Hilde, our two children Andrea, Rebecca and I attended the National conference in Quebec. Rob and Ruth and Rob LOCKHART from Manitoba attended also. Our hosts were most hospitable and inspiring. It was good to see so many from Western Canada at the conference in Waterton.

To the Lethbridge Chapter, I want to express my appreciation for the work you did from the promotional video to the details of providing rides for those arriving at various airports. You have demonstrated perseverance and commitment. Good work Lethbridge!

During the past year besides its regular monthly meetings, Edmonton had two outreach events; the annual Christmas banquet (1991) and the May 1992 long-weekend retreat.

The conference gave us an opportunity to meet members from British Columbia and Saskatchewan. As your Western Canada representative, it has been frustrating for me to be telephoning or writing people I had not met but the conference made a difference.

It is with regret that I report our Peace River Chapter no longer exists. Key people involved including the President Steve HARRINGTON, were transferred. Pray that new people will take up the commitment.

Greetings from your Koinonia Executive. Fall is now upon us and we are looking forward to an exciting schedule.

This summer was very busy for our "Nightwatch" group and our executive. Several C.F.C.P.O. Services were held. Many new people have been contacted and expressed an interest in our chapter. It looks very good that a chapter may be started in St. John and in Fredericton also. Our prayer still stands that our brothers in Nova Scotia and P.E.I. will establish and re-establish chapters.

We realize that not every Christian can participate in the CFCPO as God calls different people into different ministries. However, if you are not at present active in a given ministry, we would like to hear from you. Our fellowship has regular meetings about every 5 weeks, with some other special occasions blended in.

Plans are proceeding well towards our "Conference 93" as advertised in the recent

POET'S CORNER

OH GOD, FORGIVE ME WHEN I WHINE!

Today upon a bus, I saw a lovely girl with golden hair.
I envied her, she seemed so happy.
I wished that I were as fair.
Then suddenly, she rose to leave and I saw her hobble down the aisle.
She had one leg and wore a crutch,
but as she passed me she smiled.

Oh God, forgive me when I whine,
I have two legs and the world is mine.

Later on the way to work, I stopped to buy some sweets.
The lad who sold them had such charm, I talked with him a while.
If I were late it would do no harm and as I left he said,
"thank you sir, you've been so kind.
It's nice to talk to folks like you.
You see" he said, "I'm blind".

Oh God forgive me when I whine,
I have two eyes and the world is mine.

Later walking down the street, I saw a child with eyes of blue.
He stood and watched the others play, it seemed he didn't know what to do.
I said, "why don't you join the others, dear?"
He looked straight ahead, without a word and then I knew... he couldn't hear.

Oh God, forgive me when I whine,
I have two ears and the world is mine.

With legs to take me where I go...

With eyes to see the sunset glow...

With ears to hear what I could know...

Oh God, forgive me when I whine,
I'm blessed indeed and the world is mine!

A Tribute

by
Art Francis

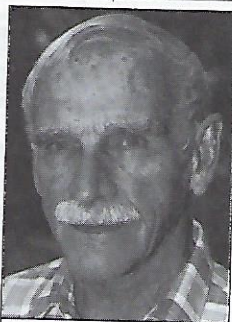

Jack will be 73 years young on 2nd January, 1993. Born in the East end of Toronto he reminisces about riding motorcycles as a young teenager. Later in life as a young police officer he gained the reputation as the "Green Hornet." Jack rode dispatch from Borden to Toronto before going overseas in November 1941. He is a romantic guy who proposed by cablegram to his wife Laura. They are together after 45 years. Having purchased a brand new 1981 Pontiac Parisienne Brougham, fully loaded they went to Florida for a five month vacation after his retirement.

It was there that a doctor detected cancer in his throat. His trip was cancelled and while returning home he asked these questions; "Why me?" "Have I not always looked after myself?" Friends shared their love with him and one man pressed into his hand a treasured item (a Pope's medallion) and he said: "Keep it Jack, it will do you good."

Admitted to the Toronto Western Hospital, on arrival from Florida, Jack's sister, a young pastor and friends prayed for him. He was given a 50% chance of recovery. He had faith that he would recover after several radiation treatments. Two ladies from a Pentecostal church hearing of Jack's health, prayed for him on their knees in his home. Was God melting this "cold, cold heart" of his, he thought?

A retired neighbor asked some advice about a police matter which, Jack took to Harold Bennett (retired S/Supt.). Harold thought he was in Florida and when he explained that he had cancer, Harold asked him to shut the door and said; "May I pray for you?" Jack was shocked and happy and replied; "Of course, that would be fine with me." Smothered by the love of so many people praying for him brought tears to his eyes as he left Harold's office.

Harold invited him to go to church where he heard a sermon on "Backsliding." THIS WAS THE TURNING POINT IN HIS LIFE. Harold questioned Jack about his spiritual life and at 5:30 p.m. that Sunday afternoon, March 14, 1982, he realized what he was going to do for the rest of his life. He surrendered to God.

Jack Turner

He is now able to thank God for allowing cancer in his life and has promised to serve Him during the rest of his journey on earth.

It has not been an easy life and not always a smooth road to travel, since becoming a Christian. Jack believes that it's much easier to think less of himself and a lot more about others because "the rewards pay off." His favourite scripture verse is from Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not on thine own understanding, but in all thy ways acknowledge Him and He will keep your paths straight."

The FCPO means a lot to Jack for he remembers when Sgt. Dino Doria and retired Metro Police officers Norm Brown and Jeff Williams visited him and welcomed him into "my new family." Jack has not missed too many meetings since; and has had personal input into the establishment of a chapter in Halifax/Dartmouth, where his daughter once lived.

Jack is the CFCPO Secretary and President of the Toronto chapter. He corresponds with anyone who writes to the Peacemaker and most of you who know Jack, are aware that you will not escape his fashion of getting you involved with the ministry of the CFCO; particularly, when it comes to saving a buck. He is a very busy man, he cannot rest unless Laura sees to it. He is always eager to tell anyone about the Lord and the importance of having eternal life. He finds time to visit and share his experience with officers who are chronically ill at home or in a hospital. He is always sharing and demonstrating his faith in Jesus Christ.

Jack is in remission for which he praises God. He says; "I will always go back for check-ups and I know what it is like to walk with 50 lbs. loss of weight, hair loss and poor blood circulation, but I thank God daily through prayer, for what He has given me to work with on His behalf."

Jack is an inspiration to us because of his dedication and commitment. Nothing will get in his way with the promise he made to serve his Lord and Savior.

Remember Jack and Laura in your prayers for health, strength and journeying mercies as they travel to Florida by car early January, where he continues the work of the CFCPO.

The 10th Annual conference was held in Canyon Camp, Waterton, Alberta, August 28-31. For those who were not there to receive the outpouring of God's blessings, we will do our best to give you a taste if we can, through this update.

The highlight of any conference is the speaker, Mike DiSanza, shown in the picture below. Mike retired from the New York Police Dept. after serving twenty two years in Harlem. His testimony begins at the age of thirteen when he had his first contact with the police. The officer placed him in the rear of the police car and encouraged him to get out of the gang scene. He never realized that cops could care that much. He eventually became a police officer and began caring for those whom he served with a special love and message that changed many lives, including his fellow officers.

Mike's testimony will make you cry and laugh with his two steps get excited for Jesus rendition. You will rejoice when you hear about the blessings of God, but most of all, he will challenge your commitment for witnessing to your partners about Christ because; if they don't know that they are not guilty, then we are. Mike lives for Jesus every moment of the day supported 150% by his charming wife, Anne.

"Brothers and sisters, when you are on patrol, stand up for Jesus. Don't worry about any assignment you receive; no assignment that comes your way can ever affect us anymore, once you are born again because steps of your life are ordered by God anyway and what is coming down the road is coming down the road. Rejoice, do a two step, get excited. Have your little night stick and while walking down the street get them devils running at two in Peacemakers. If you feel you would like to be involved (and we need you!), call Ken Smith at 384-5468 or Bob Moore at 382-6689.

Our numbers have been down and some have even stopped attending. Please pray about our Fellowship and if God leads, be faithful to His leading.

I would like to extend a hearty "Thank You" to the Peacemaker for its support. We also look forward to reading about our brothers and sisters across the land; their relationship with God and what they are accomplishing in their area. If anyone would like to correspond with us occasionally, please do so. We would love to hear from you.

One night I received a call from a gentleman from Kingston, Ontario by the name of Jack Norton. Thank you for calling Jack. I received another letter recently from Robert Sharp, a police officer in Scotland. Robert intends, God willing, to attend our 1993 Conference and we are looking forward to meeting you Robert.

While attending our church's Men's Retreat in Oxford, Nova Scotia, the speaker related to the following message taken from The Beatitudes. I hope to give a thumb nail sketch of what he told us.

He spoke of the problems that had to be solved in order to get a man before Jesus. They climbed onto a roof carrying a man on a stretcher and then removing part of the roof. They then tied vines or ropes to the stretcher and were able to lower him before Jesus. Our Mission is like that, "to get everyone possible before Jesus." Jesus told Mathew, "Come and follow Me." We also have been given this same message; invited to come and follow Him. This is a life transforming experience. The 'Whosoever will' in the Bible includes you and I and we must become involved in including others. This includes the repulsive, the unimportant, and the out-casts as well as the rich and influential. We must be just like Him [Jesus]. Luke 11:23 "He who does not gather with me; scatters." Don't go out and tell others about your church or just your Bible, go and tell others about Jesus and your relationship with Him. Don't become side-lined by the popular arguments of the time. Invite them in and make them feel welcome, encourage them to stay and grow in Jesus. Sometimes we get the attitude that we don't have to do anything. God will save who God will save! Some people would remove the front steps from the church, lock the door and shut off the lights. If people want to get saved they will find a way in. This is a bad attitude. It is very unproductive and definitely not of God. We are satisfied if somebody gets saved in our services with no effort on our part. We don't look at the ones we missed.

Be willing, make people feel welcome and that they are a part of your 'Fellowship' and of our lives whenever and wherever you are. Don't try to push your personal beliefs or doctrines on them. God is still in control, they will grow as He wishes and in the light He gives them, just love and encourage.

GOD BLESS YOU AND WELCOME BACK ALL TO OUR FELLOWSHIP FOR THE REMAINDER OF '92 AND FOR 1993.

morning. Oh, I don't want to be bothering with this cop, he's crazy man, every time we send trouble his way, he comes in the name of Jesus." "They run man", he says.

The best part of his life came after two years on the job. He was twenty three years. He suffered from high blood pressure which, frequently attacked him. His was under doctors care, he hardly slept and even taking pills would not help. In uniform one night while standing at a corner of 125th, "everything was the same" he said; "I felt a fear, a coldness." He thought he was going to die, he had a severe nose bleed, the blood was flowing to his hand, he cannot remember whether he was hallucinating but he would not turn himself in. "You don't quit man, not where I grew up"; "I saw two caskets in front of me, I thought I was in a funeral." "All of a sudden, a little black lady grabbed my hand and said; "Officer, what is the problem?" I looked at her and said; my father and my mother are dead" and she said; "Love, I understand." All this time, he would not let go of her hand. He had been with the bravest, he had seen it all but that night he said, "I felt defeated." He heard the lady say, still holding her hand, "officer, would you come with me"? They crossed 125th and went to Lenox Ave. when he saw a cross that said; "JESUS SAVES." Still holding on to his hand, he thought, "I am Italian, a catholic, not a great one" he admits, but he gave up on God and thought that Jesus was a good guy and God was out to get him. "That's the kind of attitude I had." He thought that "when you're a looser you're gonna go to hell and God can no longer love you, so if he was going to go to Hell." Then he said; "let me die and let it end." The lady asked him; "would you come into our church"? The war was on in his mind. "You can't go into that church, it's not Catholic." Then he had a revelation from God. "Is the Pope's nose bleeding"? It was the extreme for him going into that church with people having tambourines and singing aloud, praising God in a language he did not understand. "You have to learn something and once in a while do a wiggle, it will do you good", showing his two step. "I remember when they opened the door one of the ladies was doing the chicken, I wouldn't let go of the ladies hand because "that ladies hand was the love of God working mightily, breaking down strongholds." He saw the preacher preaching but did not hear a word that was spoken. Then he heard the lady say; "officer, Jesus loves you." "It was like something in my mind just unwound, Jesus loves me, my own mother could not love me, how can Jesus love me"? he thought. It was obvious he could not understand this and the lady said; "son go home and read your Bible."

He went home that night, and opened the Bible on page one and the first thing he saw was "Genius." He later found out that it was Genesis. "Ever since, I never had a nose bleed again."

He reminded us that we must preach the word in season and out of season because "you don't know who you are touching."

He recalls that when he was 14 years old, someone who was standing on a box at a corner street said to him "when you get saved read the Gospel of John." Nine years later, he read the book of John and there it was, John 3:16. He said, "I never heard a preacher preach it."

"God so loved the world, that he gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life."

But the key which unlocked the door for him was that "God did not send Jesus to condemn Mikey." "You see, I always thought I was condemned, that the way I grew up I was condemned and all my friends were condemned; "but through Him you might be saved and I saw the words God so loved me, and Jesus set me FREE that night."

This story is only an excerpt of a life story still unfolding and what a heart Mike has for police officers. He is the president of Cops For Christ Inc. Florida Chapter and travels considerably preaching and sharing about the Living Savior.

Pray for Mike and Ann that God would protect them and use them for His Glory, for they would not want it any other way.

What a conference! Praise be to God!!!

"Most Thankful"

As you may be aware the Peace Area Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Peace Officers is not currently operating. Most of the individuals involved have been relocated. We are most thankful for the opportunity that we had to meet together with the double bond of being both Peace Officers and Christians. I believe that there were some very real needs met in the lives of those involved at the time the chapter was meeting. The bonds that developed and the love, support prayer and encouragement that was exchanged were exceptional.

God bless as you continue to encourage and promote the spiritual well being of peace officers throughout Canada.

I am aware of the local chapter in Calgary and will be attempting to become involved.

Yours In Christ
