Inspiration For Christian Peace Officers

SUMMER 2003

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

These are exciting times in the outreach ministry of FCPO Canada. At our 2003 annual meeting held in Ottawa, Ontario in March, Supt H. E. (Hank) Harley (Ret.) of the Niagara Regional Police was unanimously appointed as FCPO Canada's First Executive Director. Hank's Law Enforcement Career as a committed Christian cop is best summed up in proverbs 22:29 "Do you see a man skilled in his work? He will serve before Kings; He will not serve before obscure men."

Hank and his wife Andrea have been faithful servants of FCPO Canada (serving in numerous roles) since our beginnings. The unity of our National Board, in confirming his appointment is an indicator of our high esteem for Hank.

Numerous inquiries and expressions of support have poured in for FCPO Canada recently from Windsor, Ontario, the Miramichi, Halifax, Newfoundland and Points West. What we have lacked is a timely follow-up to these contacts. Although our Executive Director doesn't officially com on-board until September 1, 2003, he has already assisted the Vice-President and myself in follow-ups.

N.B. Director Paul Doiron advises that our 2003 seminar on the Miramichi, a prelude to our 2004 conference has been supported by the Aboriginal community. Chief Roger Augustine is providing a meeting place for the 2003 seminar. Also, representatives of the Halifax Regional Police, Royal Newfoundland Constabulary and Windsor City Police have joined or inquired about setting up chapters.

God will provide as the Holy Spirit leads. Proverbs offers us some timely advice in this period of transition. "Let your eyes look straight ahead, fix your gaze directly before you, make level paths for your feet and take only ways that are firm. Do not swerve to the right or the left."

In closing there is a passage of scripture found in the New Testament that speaks specifically to peacemakers. From James 3:13-18 inclusive.

"Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show it by his good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom."

But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, Do not boast about it or deny the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from heaven but is earthly, unspiritual, of the devil, for where you have envy and selfish ambition.

There you will find disorder and every evil practice. But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure, then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.

Peacemakers who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness."

Our Vice President, Cpl Andrew Cowan, RCMP and our new Executive Director, Supt. H.E. (Hank) Harley have an abundance of this heaven sent wisdom. Hopefully, by our 2004 conference in the Miramichi they will bring success to our vision, with increased responsibilities.

God bless

Chaplain Ron Seney, President

Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour. They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.

Receive Christ by Faith Through Prayer

"Lord Jesus, I need You. Thank you for dying on the cross for my sins. I open the door of my life and received You as my Saviour and Lord. Thank You for forgiving my sins and giving me eternal life.

Take control of the throne of my life. Make me the kind of person you want me to be.

FCPO (CANADA) STATEMENT OF FAITH

THE BIBLE

The Scripture of the Old and New Testaments were verbally inspired by God, and inherent in the original writings and that they are the supreme and final authority for our faith and life. (2Tim 3:16,17; 2Peter 1:20,21)

FAITH

All those who by faith receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour and who confess Him as such before their fellow men and women become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. (Rom 10L9, 10; Eph 2:8,9; Rom 8:16,17; John 1:12)

HUMANKIND

We are sinners, and that by His death upon the cross the Lord Jesus Christ made a perfect atonement for sin, redeeming us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse in our place. (Rom 3:23, John 3:18; Gal 3:13)

GOD

There is one God, Holy, eternally existing and manifesting Himself to us in three persons; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is merciful and loves us, but is just and must punish sin. (John 3:16, 14:6, 10; Exodus 34:6,7; Matt 28:19)

CHRIST

Jesus Christ is God incarnate. He was supernaturally conceived, born of a virgin, was put to death by crucifixion under Pontius Pilate, was raised from the dead on the third day, and now sits at the Father's right hand from whence He is coming again, personally, bodily and visibly to this earth. (Luke 1:26-35; 1Cor 15:3,4; John 1:1,2, 14)

HOLY SPIRIT

The holy Spirit is God. He indwells all believers having baptized them into the body of Christ at the time of regeneration. (Rom 8-9; 1Cor 12:13,14; Eph 1:13 & 4:4,5)

GRACE

Eternal life is a free gift and cannot be earned. We are saved by grace and not by our own works. (Eph 2:8,9; Rom 6:23)

JUDGEMENT

Those who reject the love of God and the saving work of Jesus Christ will be judged and punished for sin. They will be eternally separated from God. (John 3:34 & 16:7-11; Jude 14,15)

FORGIVENESS IS UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

From the internet

One day, a man, his heart heavy with grief, was walking in the woods. As he thought about his life this day, he knew many things were not right. He thought about those who had lied about him back when he had a job. His thoughts turned to those who had stolen his things and cheated him. He remembered family that had passed on. His mind turned to the illness he had that no one could cure. His very soul was filled with anger, resentment and frustration.

Standing there this day, searching for answers he could not find, knowing all else had failed him, he knelt at the base of an old oak tree to seek the one he knew would always be there. And with tears in his eyes, he prayed:

"Lord- You have done wonderful things for me in this life. You have told me to do many things for you, and I happily obeyed. Today, you told me to forgive. I am sad, Lord, because I cannot. I don't know how. It is not fair Lord. I didn't deserve these wrongs that were done against me and I shouldn't have to forgive. As perfect as your way is Lord, this one thing I cannot do, for I don't know how to forgive. My anger is so deep Lord, I fear I may not hear you, but I pray that you teach me to do this one thing I cannot do - Teach me To Forgive."

As he knelt there in the quiet shade of that old oak tree, he felt something fall onto his shoulder.

He opened his eyes. Out of the corner of one eye, he saw something red on his shirt. He could not turn to see what it was because where the oak tree had been was a large square piece of wood in the ground. He raised his head and saw two feet held to the wood with a large spike through them. He raised his head more, and tears came to his eyes as he saw Jesus hanging on a cross. He saw spikes in His hands, a gash in His side, a torn and battered body, deep thorns sunk into His head. Finally he saw the suffering and pain on His precious face. As their eyes met, the man's tears turned to sobbing, and Jesus began to speak.

Have you ever told a lie, he asked? The man answered - "yes Lord".

Have you ever been given to much change and kept it? The man answered "yes Lord". And the man sobbed more and more.

Have you ever taken something from work that wasn't yours or stayed out of work when you were not sick, Jesus asked? and the man answered "yes Lord".

Have you ever sworn, using my Father's name in vain? The man, crying now, answered "yes Lord".

As Jesus asked many more times, "Have you ever"? The man's crying became uncontrollable, for he could only answer yes Lord. Then Jesus turned His head from one side to the other, and the man felt something fall on his other shoulder. He looked and saw that it was the blood of Jesus. When he looked back up, his eyes met those of Jesus, and there was a look of love the man had never seen or known before. Jesus said, "I didn't deserve this either, but I forgive you". It may be hard to see how you're going to get through something, but when you look back in life, you realize how true this statement is.

Read the next line slowly and let it sink in. This is simple, and important.

If God brings you to it - He will bring you through it

Lord I love You and I need You, come into my heart, today. For without You I can do nothing.

Editors' Note: I have had several opportunities to speak to people who are having troubles and bad memories from past injustices. The one common thing I learn from them is that they have never been able to forgive others or themselves. I always send them to Eph 4:32 first and tell them to start there and take back their life so they can freely give it to Jesus. Without forgiveness we are not able to grow in the spirit and we are doomed to misery. God wants us to be happy in His light, not miserable in darkness. Tell others about Eph 4:32 and help free them to finally love the Lord and themselves.

-TH

*Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you
Eph 4:32*

Prayer Changes Things

Chaplain Paul Lainén,
Toronto Police Service

My screen saver on my office computer is a constant reminder to people that walk in to see me of where my life is at just now: "Prayer changes things!" I had another screen saver there before but it never quite caught anyone's attention the way this one does. Besides which some things have happened in my life which have made it a real struggle for me to even want to change it. Some of those things happen to you recently?

Here we all are on automatic pilot in our lives. I'd have to say that I have the best job in the whole country as co-ordinating chaplain for the Toronto Police Service. Some days you're up some days your down but it's like any job or calling. Then of course while you're sailing along, wham! My wife got sick and not just 'I've got a cold kind of sick' but so sick that she can't work anymore. Top it all off with a reduction in disposable income. Can't make the mortgage payments anymore. Applying for disability takes time and appeals. And then there was me, five months into disaster and I am sent to a specialist for a colonoscopy but the 'see you in two years' send off I got from the hospital turned into a 'see you in two days' from the doctor's office. You can guess what I was thinking.

It wasn't that I was not praying at the time I was. Some of my more conservative friends disputed whether I was praying hard enough. I was praying. I really was praying! At some moment in all of what transpired in my life it looked like my vertical communication pipeline to God had failed. I wondered, was I off my game? I mean I have been doing this all of my life, talking to God. I felt pretty confident that I could leave God in charge of my life for the times that I needed God to be in charge.

When had I started doing that? I mean when had I started this nonsense of praying to God, trusting God to take my life over and then taking back my prayer and doing it all myself. That revelation to me was a wake-up call. I had forgotten the fundamental rule in vertical communication to God. Sender error! I get these e-mails from people about the C-Nile virus that affects the sender of e-mail. Can't remember whom they sent what to. It's even worse than that. Sender error in prayer has to do with the corruption factor. I keep forgetting that my life is not perfect it has been corrupted by SIN. Now there is a word you don't hear every day! That corruption factor is responsible not only for sender error in prayer but a lack of faith. At the bottom of my communication problem with God was my own personal lack of faith in what God could do.

Can you imagine it! I have been riding with peace officers at times even in harms way protected only by a bullet-proof vest. I mean that was it! I had a 'brain cramp' (one of those disastrous thinking mistakes that can get you killed) or a faith cramp (a disastrous moment of lack of trust in God that can get you killed) more likely. I had just been talking to myself the whole time and not really talking to God at all.

Here is my challenge to you who might also be doing what I was doing. The Lord says, "whatever you ask in my name will be given." Remember the target of your prayers, our heavenly Father but also remember that "if you have the faith of a mustard seed you can move mountains." The looping prayers that I thought were vertical communication with God had me as the target and my faith had just been whittled down by life's events. I couldn't answer my prayers and my faith in myself was shot. I replaced those looping prayers with Father directed prayers inspired by the Spirit and in the name of Jesus but it has taken some real repentance on my part and I have seen now how prayer changes things. Prayer changes things only as long as the right Person is in charge of the sender and redeeming the communication.

It is true! Prayer changes things!

A priest and pastor from the local churches are standing by the side of the road pounding a sign into the ground that reads, 'The End is Near!' Turn yourself around now before it's too late!

'Leave us alone you religious nuts!' yelled a driver as he sped by. From around the curve they heard screeching tires and a big splash.

The pastor turns to the priest and asks, 'Do you think the sign should just say 'Bridge Out?'

MONDAY MANNA CBMC

A service to the world's business community

June 16, 2003

Integrity: Moral Strength and Wholeness

The man of integrity walks securely, but he who takes crooked paths will be found out. Proverbs 10:9

Integrity is from the Latin Integritas, meaning soundness, purity, and also from integer, whole, complete. It means steadfast adherence to a moral or ethical code, and also the condition of being sound and complete. When integrity is present, a person's thoughts, words and actions are all in alignment with each other. Integrity is essential if relationships are to be strong. Both in business and in personal life, integrity is one of the most highly valued character qualities.

A word related to integrity is the word integration, which means, to make one. Its opposite is disintegration, which can be thought of as the state of dis integrity. In this state people go to pieces, relationships fall apart, trust is broken. Without integrity, life and relationships are fractured, unsound, and incomplete. People hurt one another, whether they mean to or not. People deceive and are deceived. It's a devastating way to live.

We seek wholeness, completeness, soundness. And we don't like to be fooled or to misplace our trust. If we've been harmed by untrustworthy people, we all the more want relationships of integrity. Life is complicated enough without having to deal with people who are two-faced and duplicitous. When someone says they'll do something, we want them to simply do what they said they would do.

BENEFITS WHEN INTEGRITY GROWS

- Life gets simpler, and stress decreases
- Time and effort don't have to be wasted in hiding motives and covering tracks
- Less injury is done to others
- We can be more devoted to positive things rather than to recovering from the negatives of deceit
- Teamwork and progress improves

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Times change, circumstances change and environments change. We all face constant change every day so we need something consistent at all times to keep us in perspective. You know our consistent and that is God, the One who created us, came to us and gave of Himself for us and then returned to guide us everyday in order that we may be with Him forever. But He knows how many changes take place and He wants us to react properly in order to meet the demands of a changing society, a changing peace officer structure and a changing FCPO (Canada).

The National Board met in March and made one of the most significant changes in recent memory. Retired Police Superintendent Hank Harley has been appointed the National Executive Director of FCPO (Canada). Hank is well suited to this posting having been a Chief of Police and a Superintendent of Police serving in different communities in Ontario. He has seen organization from the inside and the outside and has had to meet constant changes everyday of his working life. Yet, when doing so, Hank always seemed to meet his work as a pleasant challenge, something to be enjoyed and certainly something that God wanted him to do at that time. It is in that spirit that he takes on a very difficult challenge, that of coordinating the FCPO operations in Canada.

One of Hank's first challenges will be to improve the communications in our organization. Recently I have heard concerns from members in active chapters that they rarely hear anything from the Board on a National Level. Some National Board information used to be regularly featured in PEACEMAKER but even there we have let the side down. Our members need to know what is happening and through this how they can be involved in not just the local scene but the larger community and national levels.

This communication commitment must go two ways though. I am urging each one of you to consider how you can get in touch with the national level and make contact asking "What is it that Lord wants me to do for FCPO today?" If you have internet access then it is easy for you to call up www.fcpcanada.com and get in touch with Board members. Or you can send something to fcpeace@hotmail.com, and a board member can help you. Once Hank is up and running in his new position I am certain that the opportunities to contact the Board will open up to you.

The more you are involved the more you will be able to commit to working in the cause of unsaved and saved Peace Officers and their families.

Communications is a wonderful thing and I've learned from experience that it is the critical tool that always seems to break down. Why? I don't know. Can we fix it to always work? Probably not. But we can improve it and I hope that you and the Board and the Executive Director will take the necessary steps to talk, discuss, examine and act.

While we are at it communicating with God on this matter will be a great start. Let's join with each other in prayer for guidance as we improve FCPO (Canada) for all Peace Officers.

With this column finished it is my last one for PEACEMAKER Magazine. As I noted in the beginning, times change and so it is with me; there are many changes. Now is time to turn this worthwhile ministry over to someone else with new ideas and new approaches. I thank you for your contributions and support the past eight years. It's been a wonderful experience to serve our Lord and you through PEACEMAKER.

God bless to all.

PRAYER REQUESTS

For the Government of Canada, the provinces and municipalities/regions that the elected representatives will govern with God's guidance and avoid abuse of the trust given them.

For the National Board of Directors of FCPO Canada that God will guide and support them.

For the unsaved peace officers who work with you that they receive Jesus Christ.

For the many troubled places on earth where death and destruction are the result of territorial and theological disputes. We ask that God intervene in saving lives for His purpose and glory.

For Diakonos Retreat in Calgary that it continue to flourish and for the budding interest in establishing a Diakonos Retreat in Ontario.

Please pray as well for all those officers alone on patrol in remote and rural areas. Their safety often depends on their professionalism and wit in very dangerous circumstances.

We continue to have several people in need of your prayers.

Anne Huntley with cancer and heart damage as a result of chemotherapy.

Retired Police Staff Sergeant Al Staples who has cancer.

The family of Police Staff Superintendent Keith Cowling who passed away from cancer.

The family of Toronto Police Constable Malcolm Menagh (FCPO). Cancer took him Apr 29/03

The family of Retired Police Officer Chris Evans. Cancer took him Apr 24/03

FCPO Canada's Jack Foster undergoing treatment for cancer.

Matthew Lein (20) son of Doug Lein (Saugeen Shores Police) seriously injured in a hit and run New Year's Day.

Please send your prayer requests to fcpeace@hotmail.com. We will publish them in PEACEMAKER and send each one through our prayer chain via the internet.
