Inspiration For Christian Peace Officers

SEPT - DEC 2004

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Having just returned from the excellent conference put together by our New Brunswick director Paul Doiron and the Chaplain of the F.C.P.O Miramichi Chapter, Kevin Sawyer, I found myself reaching for my Bible. Kevin's choice of Philippians 2:4 as the conference theme was certainly appropriate and no doubt inspired by the Holy Spirit.

"Look out not only for your own interests but also for the interests of others"...(from St. Paul's letter to Phillippi) really set the tone of the conference as we welcomed back colleagues from the Correctional Service, to FCPO Canada.

Most of us who have been in this important outreach ministry any length of time well remember when Larry Wilson of the CPS was our National President and the FCPO conference was held in Kingston, Ontario.

God bless you Kevin for your assistance to our modern day 'Paul'.

Having also made inroads in Quebec with the addition of a Regional Representative for La Belle Province, a reading of Chapter two of Philippians (by head and heart) could very well launch this fellowship once again to represent Christ nationally among the entire Peace Officer community. Best regards and

God bless,

*Ron Seney,
President, FCPO Canada*

THE 2004 NATIONAL CONFERENCE

The 2004 National Conference was held at Frank's Holiday Resort just outside of Miramichi, New Brunswick and hosted by the local FCPO Chapter.

This conference was by far one of the best fellowship gatherings we have ever had. The hospitality of the local chapter combined with the staff at Frank's Holiday Resort made everyone welcome and provided for all of our needs. We thank each person who was involved in arranging the conference and who carried it out from the set up teams to the resort staff.

The business portions of the conference were on point and we came away with a lot of work for everyone. There will be improvements in our business practices and operations. These are great steps forward for our fellowship. We were renewed and inspired. We ask you to prayerfully welcome Serge Lemee (Que) and Irene Cassidy (Ont) to the Board.

One important piece of business discussed was a motion to change the by-laws allowing for the FCPO to change its head office address from the Scarborough area (original add on formation of FCPO in Canada) to any place designated by the Board from time to time. This will allow us to change with the times and people who are given the responsibility to conduct FCPO business. The secretary will post the motion in a future PEACEMAKER.

On the spiritual side we were taken care very well by our Host Chaplain Kevin Sawyer and the music provided on Saturday evening and Sunday morning by New Creation, a local band of inspired and very happy musicians.

The guest speaker at the Saturday dinner Moncton NB MP, Claudette Bradshaw, gave an impassioned message of awareness for the plight of people with mental illness and children who suffer abuse and alienation.

By then end of the conference on Sunday people were totally refreshed and ready to take FCPO back into Canadian peace officers. We look forward to Ontario hosting our next conference in 2006.

FCPO (CANADA) STATEMENT OF FAITH

THE BIBLE

The Scripture of the Old and New Testaments were verbally inspired by God, and inherent in the original writings and that they are the supreme and final authority for our faith and life. (2Tim 3:16,17; 2Peter 1:20,21)

FAITH

All those who by faith receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour and who confess Him as such before their fellow men and women become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. (Rom 10L9, 10; Eph 2:8,9; Rom 8:16,17; John 1:12)

HUMANKIND

We are sinners, and that by His death upon the cross the Lord Jesus Christ made a perfect atonement for sin, redeeming us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse in our place. (Rom 3:23, John 3:18; Gal 3:13)

GOD

There is one God, Holy, eternally existing and manifesting Himself to us in three persons; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is merciful and loves us, but is just and must punish sin. (John 3:16, 14:6, 10; Exodus 34:6,7; Matt 28:19)

CHRIST

Jesus Christ is God incarnate. He was supernaturally conceived, born of a virgin, was put to death by crucifixion under Pontius Pilate, was raised from the dead on the third day, and now sits at the Father's right hand from whence He is coming again, personally, bodily and visibly to this earth. (Luke 1:26-35; 1Cor 15:3,4; John 1:1,2, 14)

HOLY SPIRIT

The holy Spirit is God. He indwells all believers having baptized them into the body of Christ at the time of regeneration. (Rom 8-9; 1Cor 12:13,14; Eph 1:13 & 4:4,5)

GRACE

Eternal life is a free gift and cannot be earned. We are saved by grace and not by our own works. (Eph 2:8,9; Rom 6:23)

JUDGEMENT

Those who reject the love of God and the saving work of Jesus Christ will be judged and punished for sin. They will be eternally separated from God. (John 3:34 & 16:7-11; Jude 14,15)

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S CORNER
PEACEMAKER

Well here we are back from the Miramichi, and what a time we had. It was wonderful to be together with the members of the Fellowship from across the nation. I am always amazed at how close we become so quickly to people we have never met before because of our common bond of being Christians, and watch out because it's contagious!

The newly elected Board has plans for the future that should keep each and every member busy meeting the goals of the F.C.P.O., mainly, growth. We have a very large number of Christian Peace Officers across this great country of Canada who have never heard about the Fellowship, which to me is almost unconceivable.....where have we been?

Well, the survey from the last issue has surely been helpful in bringing our list up to date.

The initial result however is disappointing. We mail out approximately 1000 Peacemakers. I have received 49 responses as I write this. Now, we do not have an expectation that everyone who receives this publication is or wants to be a member and we are more than willing to ensure that those who are not interested in membership continue to receive the PEACEMAKER, if that is their desire. If you are one of those we would appreciate hearing from you also. Indicate that you want to continue to be on the "mailing list" however decline membership at this time, that is no problem however we have heard from 49, that leaves about 951 who have not responded but have received the publication.

Now, I believe we have solved our problems with Canada Post. I have to apologize for the article that stated there was a "postage paid" insert in the last edition. There was supposed to be one however when we went to the presses, Canada Post advised us that we could not do that because we didn't have the proper authorization. Well, I must give credit to our printer Mr. Mike Skinner, a Christian non-peace officer guy who has been through the proverbial "loops" trying to get our publication and the Canada Post regulations to coincide, whew, what job! Thanks Mike, I think you've got it beat but we'll find out when it comes time to mail this issue.

You will find this issue came in an envelope. This has allowed us the best postage price for Canada Post however it has added to the production cost. You will notice that magazines coming to you these days are in plastic pouches. This is the latest in cost saving devices for the Post Office however we can't afford the machinery to produce that kind of mailings consequently we are going in envelopes which although adds to the cost reduces the postage, to our advantage in the end. It will also free up 1/2 page of the publication for further articles.

Speaking of articles, our Board has committed to submitting from their areas across the country on a regular basis. This is a NATIONAL organization and needs Coast-to-Coast inclusion. If you have something to share submit it to our Editor Tom Huntley, he loves material.

Where has summer gone? We are now into the next fiscal year and down to business. A huge thank-you to those of you who have returned your survey attached to a cheque, your response is really encouraging to the Board and myself.

Please, everyone who has not yet replied, do so, so that we can have a fresh and up dated list of our members and subscribers.

IHS,

Hank

WHO CAN A COP TRUST?

From Cop Devotionals - (on the internet) # 203 9/06/04

"It is better to depend on the Lord than to trust mortals."
Psalm 118:8 (GOD'S WORD version)

Sometimes people let you down. Sometimes superiors disappoint you. Sometimes colleagues are less than loyal. Sometimes even those closest to you, in your own family, are uncommitted or unfaithful.

There will be times in everyone's life when they feel there is no one they can trust. It is during those times that you need to be careful not to become hardened and bitter. You need to turn to the one person who IS trustworthy... your Father God.

HE is committed. HE will not abandon you. HE is loyal. HE is always honest. HE will never stab you in the back.

Even if everyone else were to let you down, your Heavenly Father remains faithful. During those times when trust is hard to come by, talk to God and trust HIM. You will never be without someone you can trust!

PRAYER: Father, thank you for being so faithful. We put our trust in you, knowing that you will always be there for us! Help us through the times when we feel alone. In Jesus' name. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF OUR DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST ROB THOMPSON

Another Stranger Gone Home

"All these died in faith, without receiving the promises, but having seen them and having welcomed them from a distance, having confessed that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God for He has prepared a city for them."

(Hebrews 11:13,15)

Jesus defines a friend as one who sticks closer to you than a brother. It isn't often that you really meet someone like that, but those of us who do, know that somehow this relationship is different than the others you have.

I have been blessed in my lifetime to have more than one of these relationships, and I want to share one of them with you.

About seven years ago, I met Mr. Rob Thompson, FCPO Nat'l Director for the Saskatchewan region. Immediately we identified with each other on two levels. First there was a witness of our spirits that we both loved the Lord and second there was the identification with each other having been former police officers.

Of course we had many stories of our past endeavors as police officers to share with one another but even more important we developed a very strong relationship around the things of Jesus Christ.

Rob had a heart as big as all outdoors for Christian Police Officers. He often shared his concern for those officers who were stationed in small communities where they wouldn't get the regular fellowship and encouragement they needed. Often times he would tell me about how he had discovered another Christian officer in some remote community and how he had already sent an email trying to encourage them along.

I had three rare privileges in relation to Rob, one is to have been his friend, another is to have worked with him in relation to FCPO and the third was to have been given the honor to bring the eulogy at his funeral.

I want to say that when Rob Thompson said he was your friend, you clearly came to experience it in the way Jesus defined it.

Rob had many loves in his life and I want to share with you three that I know of. First of course he had an unwavering love for the Lord and a stalwart faith that I think could rival some of those mentioned in Hebrews 11. During this final course of his illness he fought a very valiant fight. I recall visiting him one day and finding an army helmet on the table beside his bed. He had worn it until it became uncomfortable to do so and then wouldn't allow it out of his sight after that. He knew he was in a battle and I think he wanted everyone to know he intended to meet it face on in faith like a Christian should.

Rob also loved his family and had a very deep concern that his young boys would come to inherit all God promises for them in His word. He would take very careful time to ensure that all their questions were answered in a manner they could understand at their age, and you could always find him praying with them.

Finally, Rob also had a very deep love for FCPO. He introduced me to FCPO and was one of those responsible getting me involved. Working with him to promote and continue FCPO in Saskatchewan always provided new and interesting experiences.

For me, being around Rob in many ways brought the Bible to life as I watched him walk out his faith. I think the most impressive thing about Rob was his confidence in the Lord.

The Apostle Paul prior to his departure said to Timothy; "...the time of my departure has come, I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, and I have kept the faith"

I can't think of a better passage of scripture to describe my friend. over the last year or so as we walked this road together he demonstrated it again and again.

Only our loving heavenly Father knows when our course is finished, but I can say of my friend, he fought the good fight, and through it all he kept the faith.

Rob's Pastor, Dave Wells, performed the funeral and brought a message that touched the hearts of us all and there were two new commitments to Christ as a result. Rob was always concerned that the glory for everything he did would go to the Lord and it was very fitting that even in his death God received the glory through these new commitments.

His family, his friends and many others whose lives he touched along his journey will miss Rob until that promised day of our reunion.

Pastor Merv Tippe

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

HAS A NATION EVER CHANGED ITS GODS? JEREMIAH 2:11

I've been studying Jeremiah lately. The above statement struck me as significant and something God wanted me to write about. There are two ways of looking at it. The intended answer in Jeremiah was no. Other nations kept their gods (which were not really gods) while God's chosen changed gods with each city they passed through (ref Jer 11:13).

Is there a comparison today? Of course. How many have heard someone say "I love my car"? We can go even further and look at how many worship their car as if it were an idol of metal. Remember that Josiah tore down all the false worship idols and reduced the ones of stone and metal to powders cut up shards. (2 Chron 34).

I recall my own love affair with a 1975 Charger Daytona. It had all the muscle required for the young man of that day. I loved that piece of metal. My brother borrowed it one morning while I was sleeping after night shift. He got in a minor crash that wasn't his fault and sure enough, I freaked. I wish I could take those words back but I can't. He forgave me long ago and I him.

Several years ago Anne and I were looking for a new car. I was checking into a LeBaron convertible. It had a hefty price tag but it did look good. The salesman was having a hard time convincing me and he made the dumbest statement I ever heard (in relation to car sales). He said "you really have to buy this car, your wife loves it too much for you to pass it. She told me how much she loves this car and she looks so good in it". With this the sale was definitely lost when I told him point blank "my wife has never wasted her time loving objects". Anne told me later that she really didn't want a convertible and with two kids, she preferred her old station wagon.

Today it is clear that many have changed their gods. Canada and the USA were founded on principles based in the Bible and the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And what have we now?

We have wealthy sports idols worshiped by fans who crave an autograph, must touch them or have a jersey with the players name on it or have a hockey stick signed by the player. People pay thousands for these pieces of cloth and wood. Along with them their teams are worshiped as if they were all the gods of Mount Olympus.

There is the adoration of the entertainment world. Just listen to people who talk about being there when so and so sang at the Gardens. It doesn't matter that they were in the rafters and the 'star' couldn't see them, they were there. Entertainers are worshiped and adored by those who cannot see beyond the flash and colours into a world full of gloom that is often drugs and depression. When a Canadian rock star recently made disparaging remarks about her home town I found the following comment reported in the Toronto Sun in relation to her comment. One reader wrote in "this is what happens when you worship idols instead of Jesus! (She) is just a misguided young person who needs the Lord." How true!

Today's # 1 idol is cash. Marriages break up over cash, friends hate each other over cash and brothers fight over cash. Cash brings control and control brings power and often it is power misused and is more damaging than anything else one could imagine.

This society has replaced God in public with idols of flesh, wood, metal and paper. Not far from Jeremiah's day are we? In many ways our politicians have been allowed to nearly outlaw God in Canada! Even when we speak up they don't want to hear us. God is not a voter.

The second, and I believe the more important, manner in which to apply the opening statement is through The Great Commission. In following Jesus' instructions we are hoping to change all the nations of the world into giving up their false gods and turning to the true God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We are out there speaking the gospel of life so that people will turn to the "spring of living water" (Jer 2:13).

Can we make the case so that people will be inspired by God to listen to His word and make the change from their modern idols to God? Yes we can!

PRAYER REQUESTS

For the government of Canada, the provinces and municipalities/regions that the elected representatives will govern with God's guidance and avoid abuse of the trust given them.

For the National Board of Directors of FCPO Canada that God will guide and support them in their work and that He will provide the FCPO with opportunity for ministry to all peace officers and their families.

For the unsaved peace officers who work with you that they receive Jesus Christ.

For Diakonos Retreat in Calgary that it continue to flourish and for the continued interest in establishing a Diakonos Retreat in Ontario.

For all those police officers alone on patrol in remote and rural areas and for corrections officers walking the jails. Their safety most often depends on their professionalism and wit in dangerous situations.

For Nanci, John & David Thompson, on the passing of Rob (Regina - FCPO Nat'l Director) and their family. Rob went to the Lord on July 14 after a battle with cancer.

For Terry Smith (Bluenose Chapter, NS) recovering from a serious heart attack.

Dave and Virney Greenhalgh (Surrey BC) as Dave recovers from multiple fractures to his leg and foot after a bad fall. Prayers to this date saved him from surgery and the possible loss of his foot.

Let's pray today that not one peace officer's life goes unsaved. In FCPO, we work to that goal. It is our mission.

God Bless to All
