Inspiration For Christian Peace Officers

MARCH 2006

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD...

And the crowds asked [John the Baptist], "What then shall we do?" And he answered them, "Whoever has two tunics is to share with him who has none, and whoever has food is to do likewise." Tax collectors also came to be baptized and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Collect no more than you are authorized to do." Soldiers also asked him, "And what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Do not extort money from anyone by threats or by false accusation, and be content with your wages." (Luke 3: 10-14)

Many of us in Canada and North America are blessed in ways that we don't always realize. We all no doubt complain about how we live pay cheque to pay cheque and how a dollar doesn't go as far as it used to; however, are we really aware as to just really how wealthy we are when compared to most of the world? I think sometimes in our society, the quest for "more toys" has left us dissatisfied. I recently spoke with a colleague who spent 3 weeks with Habitat for Humanity in Central America. He commented that the people there, in our view, had nothing yet they were happy.

I had the opportunity in January of 2006 to take a week of vacation time and, being tired of the long Canadian winter and 27 consecutive days of rain, head south to Gulfport, Mississippi with 6 friends from across Canada. Our specific mission was to work on a house owned by a Gulfport Police Officer and his family that had sustained uninsured flood damage from the hurricane. 6 months later thousands of families in the area are living in FEMA trailers and have no idea where to even begin to rebuild. In driving around the area you are struck by the sheer magnitude of the damage. It is as if a giant hand simply wiped away or knocked over everything in its path. Words or pictures can't accurately describe what has happened unless you have been there to see it first hand.

All of us going knew that we would make a difference in some small way. None of us knew however, that we would take away personally what we did from this trip. We arrived as strangers just wanting to help but left as family and friends of those we met in our travels. In the words of one team member (an unsaved police officer who answered the FCPO call for help), "to drop what I was doing, take a week off and just go was the best thing I have ever done. Count me in when we go again".

Have you recently read 1st Samuel chapter 14? Jonathon and his armour bearer approach a Philistine outpost with one sword between them and considerably outnumbered. There was no logistical planning, no waiting for the financial resources to buy more swords to be in place before hand; there was no hesitation, just stepping out. As an FCPO board, in September of 2005, we stepped out in faith not having teams in place to support our brothers and sisters in Gulfport, no financial resources to cover what were committing to sending, or if we had them, it meant other FCPO activities no longer had the funds. We have been challenged and stretched by moving forward blind in many ways with only trust and faith to rely on. Guess what: it has worked out. God is providing and doing some amazing things in the Gulf Coast area. It was incredible to see people coming together regardless of race, colour or creed; just how God intended in his church.

Receive Christ by Faith Through Prayer

"Lord Jesus, I need You. Thank you for dying on the cross for my sins. I open the door of my life and received You as my Saviour and Lord. Thank You for forgiving my sins and giving me eternal life.

Take control of the throne of my life. Make me the kind of person you want me to be.

FCPO (CANADA) STATEMENT OF FAITH

THE BIBLE

The Scripture of the Old and New Testaments were verbally inspired by God, and inherent in the original writings and that they are the supreme and final authority for our faith and life. (2Tim 3:16,17; 2Peter 1:20,21)

FAITH

All those who by faith receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour and who confess Him as such before their fellow men and women become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. (Rom 10L9, 10; Eph 2:8,9; Rom 8:16,17; John 1:12)

HUMANKIND

We are sinners, and that by His death upon the cross the Lord Jesus Christ made a perfect atonement for sin, redeeming us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse in our place. (Rom 3:23, John 3:18; Gal 3:13)

GOD

There is one God, Holy, eternally existing and manifesting Himself to us in three persons; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is merciful and loves us, but is just and must punish sin. (John 3:16, 14:6, 10; Exodus 34:6,7; Matt 28:19)

CHRIST

Jesus Christ is God incarnate. He was supernaturally conceived, born of a virgin, was put to death by crucifixion under Pontius Pilate, was raised from the dead on the third day, and now sits at the Father's right hand from whence He is coming again, personally, bodily and visibly to this earth. (Luke 1:26-35; 1Cor 15:3,4; John 1:1,2, 14)

HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit is God. He indwells all believers having baptized them into the body of Christ at the time of regeneration. (Rom 8-9; 1Cor 12:13,14; Eph 1:13 & 4:4,5)

GRACE

Eternal life is a free gift and cannot be earned. We are saved by grace and not by our own works. (Eph 2:8,9; Rom 6:23)

JUDGEMENT

Those who reject the love of God and the saving work of Jesus Christ will be judged and punished for sin. They will be eternally separated from God. (John 3:34 & 16:7-11; Jude 14,15)

Perseverance and Hope: Trusting that God will Come Through

The last few months have been a very interesting time in my life as I have been moving from milk to meat in faith - as Hebrews states "Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity" (Heb 6:1) I left Toronto in the summer of 2003 to move to Abbotsford, BC. for family reasons. I left the possibility of a full time job (being bridged into a Customs Officer position from a Student Officer Position) and left many friends and relatives behind. Coming home to my family was a great joy and something I felt strongly about. It also brought me into the position of being unemployed as well as in debt from student loans. Even though I had previous experience with the RCMP and Customs, I had to start from square one. I realized I had to put my faith into practice and to persevere through this trial.

My first hurdle was to acquire employment - being biased, I obviously desired a job in the field of law enforcement. I had student loan payments coming up and had to find some sort of income to start paying the bills. God says to trust in him - "but whoever trusts in the Lord is kept safe" (Prov 29:25) That is exactly what I had to do.

I persevered in prayer and personal job search for exactly 12 months where I found employment with the Abbotsford Police Department as a Communications Operator in their Communications Section. This job was a casual position that provided hope and some income, as well as great people to work with. The Lord answered prayer again soon after as he opened the door to work with the RCMP in Surrey and later in Chilliwack - both casual positions. This brought even more hope as it fulfilled a specific need which God already knew ahead of time - as well as through my petition to Him. My perseverance was slowly being rewarded and my trust in Him was keeping me safe.

In the meantime I was dealing with various factors in my life that had weighed me down, though was a healthy challenge. First, I was engaged to a woman in where the relationship turned sour - the end result was a break-up. The by product of this was a wealth of emotions (anger, sadness, guilt and joy). Going through these emotions led me closer to the Lord and taught me more about Christ's divine love for His children (how Jesus' love parallels that of our love for our family, life partner, friend and etc). Secondly, I had family circumstances to attend to which were very trying. I learned much about compassion, patience and love for those around me. Being an only child is supposed to be some sort of spoiled growing up routine (which it was to some degree), though in this situation taught me a deeper sense of responsibility for the ones I love as well as the principle of servanthood. Lastly, I undertook a course of study to keep my mind going - and growing - which had its academic stresses and time limitations. The different weights that entered my life (both self imposed and not self imposed) were experiences in regard to life lessons (practical) but also spiritual lessons (supernatural). Trusting in the Lord to help deal with my life became very important - and is continually important - as I knew my efforts were futile without Christ. The following passage outlines what I did - "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight. (Prov 3:5-6)

During the months following the break up, the course of study I was in, the family responsibilities I had and working three casual jobs (keeping in mind the crazy schedule I held) a hope I prayer for came through - a full time position! The news was a weight lifted off my shoulders and a goal that was reached. My perseverance through prayer and hope was rewarded by the Lord. The opportunity is great and provides for my daily bread (in practical terms of having an income) - "Give us today our daily bread." (Matt 6:11). This also brought a joy to my family as I now have an avenue to provide for their needs as well as the goals that I hope to achieve. With a new job comes great joys as well as trials (rejoicing in feeling useful, applying my skills, working in a field that I love and dealing with office politics - what a joy eh?). I have been at this job for little less than one year and I have been enjoying it tremendously.

I look back at the last two years and I thank God for the many trials and tribulations that I have gone through as each and every one of those were a learning experience - both practically and spiritually. The hope that I had in God to provide my daily bread (employment), coming to terms with my emotions over a broken engagement, the duty I have to my family out of the love of my heart and the love of Christ have all added to my life in Jesus and taught me a little wisdom. Trusting and persevering in the Lord will enabled me to see the light at the end of the tunnel.

- I just want to say a heartfelt thank you to my brothers and sisters in the Lord for their support and encouragement, especially to those who I have forged relationships with. I dearly appreciate your support, prayers and guidance in helping me run this race.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Freshly returned from two months on the Gulf Coast, specifically Gulfport, Mississippi, I am anxious to share with you the situation "Post Katrina" as it is today. Six months have gone by since this unbelievable storm blew through the Gulf Coast devastating EVERYTHING in it's path. It indeed blew and washed away everything along the shoreline but one thing that it didn't do is, kill the spirit of the people. There is a sign up on an empty lot, painted with a 4" brush in freehand "KATRINA WAS GREAT BUT GOD IS GREATER!"

I have to tell you that Andrea and I left here thinking we might be a blessing to these folks who had lost everything, which I am sure we did, but we also received a blessing from them as we became their friends, working alongside them daily. One thing that is very obvious along the Gulf Coast is the spirit of the thousands of Christians who daily praise God for their blessings, reaching out to help each other and getting on with getting on.

I won't mention any names so that I don't hold any one person higher than the other, but I want to commend the Gulfport Fellowship of Christian Peace Officers for their friendship, their love of God and their caring for the people of the City and areas surrounding. "Who helps the Police and Fire personnel when they are busy helping the community, double shifts, 7 days a week?" We do !

Since the beginning of this ordeal FCPO Canada has responded with a relief coordinator, on the ground, in charge, David Greenhalgh, a retired police officer from British Columbia who shortly thereafter was joined by Alec and Laurie Duff, a retired firefighter from British Columbia, both who coordinated the project to assist police officers and firefighters rebuild their homes, if indeed they had anything left to rebuild. Many of these officers had but a concrete slab left.

FCPO Canada advertised for donations and volunteers and indeed both started to come in and both were put to work for the Gulfport Police Department and Fire Department. We had teams of active police officers and fire fighters who took vacation time to assist, retired police and fire fighters who changed their "winter" plans and came to Gulfport to work and indeed, we even had "the three amigos", two retired RCMP officers and one retired engineer, friends from opposite sides of Canada who made their time of working in Gulfport a "old boys reunion" and from spending time with these guys, I know they had a ball!

Is it finished? Not by a long shot! The Canadians have now turned over management of the project to the Gulfport FCPO chapter. These guys and gals are now back to normal shifts and many have their wives and families back home with them so they are now focused on helping each other however, they still need help. They need labourers. How about you? Can you swing a hammer and put on shingles, screw in drywall (they call it sheetrock), paint etc.? If you can and would like to make a difference in the life of another police officer or firefighter contact our President Andrew Cowan who is coordinating the volunteers. Perhaps you can't go but you would still like to make a difference in the life of one of these people who are feeling the strain of not receiving full coverage from their insurance, a cash donation will result in you receiving a Canadian income tax receipt.

The FCPO Canada has made a difference in Gulfport, Mississippi. Many of our volunteers are not members of the FCPO but they have also made a difference because it all about supporting our fellow officers. The Americans are indeed in shock that the biggest response to their "Officers Down" message came from Canadians. Boy, I guess we acted like Canadians Eh?

Thanks to all the volunteers you're great folks and wow, some of you have decided to go back, AMEN!

A WORDSTUDY MOMENT

Sermons and other study material can be downloaded and printed to assist your personal Bible study at www.wordstudy.ca

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Stephen Covey became very well known in the area of both business organization and personal development by teaching people a very simple principle – keep the first things first. He realized that many business and individuals failed to reach their goal and achieve the potential because they failed in the basic discipline. We may talk about being trapped by the tyranny of the urgent. A German [philosopher called Goethe sad that the good is the greatest enemy of the best. If we have moral sense, we do not choose what is morally wrong. We know better than that. But the things that are genuinely good can actually prevent us from knowing and doing what the best is.

Jesus knew that! He defined the best as – the kingdom of God. Jesus knew that the very best thing we can ever seek and strive for in our lives is the kingdom of God. One way to define and describe the kingdom of God is to see it as the reign and the rule of God over every part of our lives. The kingdom of God is about our money, our marriage and family, our home. God is interested and wants His rule in our lives over everything!

The message of Jesus is that we are to repent which means rethink how we are living because the kingdom is here. The next time you pray what we call The Lord's Prayer, think of the line, "may your kingdom come, may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." The kingdom of God is done perfectly in heaven, because that's where God rules.

If you want to know how the kingdom of God works, read some of the parables in Matthew 13. Here Jesus describes what the kingdom is like and how it operates.

Most of us worry about our jobs, our children, health issues. In Matthew 6:33, Jesus tells us to seek and strive first for the kingdom of God and all these other things become God's responsibility. That's really putting first things first!

FRENCH CANADIAN PEACE OFFICERS RESPONDING TO KATRINA WITH FCPO

Au début de janvier 2006, Krista MILLAR et moi-même, Jacques RAINVILLE, avons été invités par Andrew COWAN à nous rendre à Biloxi (Mississippi) afin de rebâtir une maison qui avait été détruite par l'ouragan Katrina. Andrew nous a parlé de l'organisation dont il faisait partie à Victoria (C.-B.), la FCPO, et il nous a décrit son engagement au sein de l'organisation. Il nous a aussi mentionné que nous irions rebâtir la maison d'un policier de la ville de Gulfport. Après quelques discussions, Krista et moi avons décidé de faire partie du groupe qui se rendrait au Mississippi. Sans trop savoir à quoi nous attendre, nous sommes partis avec l'idée d'aider un des nôtres et de rencontrer de nouveaux amis. Dès notre arrivée à Gulfport, on nous a expliqué la situation et nous avons pu voir les dégâts énormes causés par l'ouragan. Ce que nous avons vu nous a littéralement renversés et bouleversés. Des maisons démolies, des villages totalement détruits et surtout des gens partout qui tentent de se retrousser les manches et de continuer à vivre une vie normale malgré tout. Pour Krista et moi ce fût une grande expérience de vie. Nous avons rencontré les propriétaires de la maison que nous rebâtissions et avons pu partager leur peine; et surtout, nous leur avons donné quelque chose qu'ils pensaient avoir perdu à jamais : l'espoir.

Nous avons vu dans leurs yeux cet espoir de pouvoir habiter à nouveau leur maison et de reprendre une vie normale et enfin profiter de la retraite. Nous avons ressenti beaucoup de joie et d'émotions à l'idée d'avoir changé la vie de ces personnes. Lors de notre départ de Biloxi, nous nous sommes dits que nous avions laissé à tout jamais nos empreintes dans une maison du Mississippi, et que nous avions amélioré la vie de ces gens. Finalement, c'est la raison pour laquelle nous avons décidé un jour de pratiquer le métier de policier, pour changer la vie des gens et aider la société à devenir meilleure. Je crois que nous avons atteint une partie de notre objectif. Cette expérience nous a grandement changés. Nous avons toujours pensé que nous étions des privilégiés de la société, et ce séjour à Biloxi nous l'a confirmé.

Jacques Rainville, Montreal, Que.

BOARD MESSAGE

We are called as believers to go forward in faith, "pay it forward" and to be satisfied with what God has provided you. How many of us, including myself at times, have forgotten how to do that? I would encourage you in some way these coming months to "pay it forward" in a big way. Are you interested in getting involved? Stop "praying" about it and waiting for God to "tell you". Sometimes he wants to see our faith and have us step out without all the t's crossed. Whether it is heading to South

PRAYER REQUESTS

For the government of Canada, the provinces and municipalities/regions that the elected representatives will govern with God's guidance and avoid abuse of the trust given them.

For the National Board of Directors of FCPO Canada that God will guide and support them in their work and that He will provide the FCPO with opportunity for ministry to all peace officers and their families.

For the unsaved peace officers who work with you that they receive Jesus Christ.

For Diakonos Retreat in Calgary that it continue to flourish and nourish.

For all those police officers alone on patrol in remote and rural areas and for corrections officers walking the jails. Their safety most often depends on their professionalism and wit in dangerous situations.

For all the Peace Officers and their families facing the aftermath of several hurricanes in the Gulf of Mexico area. May they be strengthened daily by the Holy Spirit.

For the safety of all Canadian Forces personnel and Canadian Peace Officers serving in dangerous missions overseas. They face the prospect of angry and out of control gunmen with each day.

Comfort for the family and comrades of Police Cst. Valerie Gignac, killed in the line of duty in Laval, Que., Dec 14, 2005.

America, Mississippi, Africa or by simply walking over to the person who lives across the street, your time and actions can make a difference in a person's life but you have to take the step to make it happen. It will all work out.
